Time changes everything and within 90 days citizens won't recognize the old Chicago and North Western depot in Arlington Heights, now in the process of being remodeled. Diggers at work, lower left, on the Rockwell st. relief sewer, which will extend from Mitchell ave. to State rd. This shot was taken between Dunton and Vail aves. New well being drilled, lower right, on Wing st., just west of Ridge. The latter two are part of the million dollar sewer and water improvement program now underway in Arlington.

Community Wins the First Round with Mosquitoes

The village-wide mosquito abatement program, which got underway in Arlington Heights Saturday night, is considered a unanimous success according to a survey made by this paper Tuesday night.

Flies, however, seem to be immune to the spray, as a number of citizens complained they were still bothered by them. A second spraying will be done in the near future.

FOLLOWING ARE statements made by 11 persons, all residing in various sections of the village.

Mrs. George Rezner, 410 N. Douglas — "I haven't had a chance to sit outside since the spraying, but my neighbors all tell me they can't find a mosquito anywhere."

Mrs. James Wood, 1106 Clarendon — "The abatement program has been a real success in Sherwood, though we are still bothered by flies. My husband also wonders if this spray will kill insects that the birds use for food?"

MRS. AGNES Harkin, 120 S. Pine — "We sat in the yard all day Sunday, and as late as 10 o'clock in the evening, and we weren't bothered in the least by the pests. Before they sprayed it was impossible to sit in the yard after dark."

George Peterson, 1324 N. Dunton — "Haven't noticed a mosquito since they sprayed."

Dan E. Schueren, 595 Newbury — "We notice a definite relief from the mosquitoes. This is the second time Scarsdale has been sprayed this season and I'm all for such a program." (This statement was made by someone else at the Schuerens, since they were not at home to speak for themselves.)

Mrs. Robert Yowell, 922 N. Hickory — "Out in the yard until late at night and nary a mosquito. What a welcome relief after spending the first half of the summer in misery."

MRS. R. B. Drake 741 S. Mitchell — "Haven't noticed any mosquitoes since they sprayed, but wish the solution was strong enough to take care of the flies too."

Mrs. J. M. Bosch, 114 Brighton, "Mosquitoes in Stonegate seem to have disappeared too, thank goodness."

Mrs. A. C. Jeffery, 1111 W. Campbell — "Fogging equipment missed our house. I guess because its the last one before the end of the village limits. They came as far as Dwyer street and turned, missing us completely. Yes, we still have mosquitoes."

Paul Espenshade, 635 S. Beverly lane — "I've been able to work in my garden and haven't been bothered by mosquitoes at all. They sprayed in Scarsdale over the Fourth of July but it didn't seem to have nearly the effect as this time. Maybe it's because the whole village was done and the mosquitoes could no longer come in from other neighborhoods."

Rudy Greinke, 205 N. Dunton — "We can sit in the yard now, and not be bothered by mosquitoes, though they still seem to have the upper hand in my garden."

VFW FESTIVAL OPENS WEDNESDAY

Dial Setup Awes Phone Visitors Here

Any doubts as to whether Arlington Heights had gone "big time" — telephonically speaking —were dispelled Thursday night as about 300 invited guests made the first tour through the newly completed telephone office and dial exchange.

From manager Bill Lathen's words of greeting to those of parting the two hour trip was well worth while, and surprisingly interesting to the womenfolk who had gone along with their husbands "as good wives should."

Arlington's own dial exchange, toll station and business office is certainly second to none. It's air conditioned. It's clean. Its decor is pleasing to the eye.

TECHNICALLY, the plant would keep any man interested for hours. Its two floors and basement are filled with electronic affairs (layman's all-inclusive term) which create questions and interest as fast as those queries are answered.

We couldn't hope to understand the intricacies of how 7,800 local phones could find any of its brethren automatically or how local operators can dial direct any number in 700 cities stretched across the country.

They showed route directories supplying the names of thousands of towns and cities, 70 foreign countries, planes and ships at sea. Equally interesting was the automatic way a single strip of tape punches the record of every toll call emanating from this exchange, and how those holes are transformed into monthly bills, a term every man understands.

THE PLACE is clean. With sensitive dial equipment numbering into the tens of thousands of pieces, much of it under glass, dust is a forbidden word within the building. No ship or freshly painted shore station of Uncle Sam's navy gleamed any brighter than did the walls, floors and equipment.

Explaining the intricacies of the dial operation were about twenty nattily dressed young men telling their part in the establishment of the exchange. These men were having to put into words their eight hours a day and, though some were nervous, seemed to enjoy telling it.

PARTICULARLY emphasized by many a worker was the presence of massive batteries, a diesel engine and other emergency equipment which keep phones ringing in event of disaster, either man-made or Mother Nature's.

And certainly the "show" telling of the development of microwave tower relay stations, like that one near Lake Zurich, instead of wires for communication of TV, radio and phone calls by the hundreds, was the frosting on the cake as good as that served afterward by the ladies of St. Peter Lutheran church.

It was well worth it.

Stage, Radio Stars to Perform; Many Sidelights Along Midway

Stars of stage and radio will provide the entertainment at the sixth annual festival of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 981, Arlington Heights, and its auxiliary, which will take place at Recreation Park, July 30 through August 3.

George Hauff, festival chairman, said the Post put the emphasis on first rate entertainers to highlight this year's festival. The Betty Young Duo of night club fame will perform the opening night, July 30.

Thursday night's show will include Art Chester, clown; the Musical Duke Al Carsello, accordion stroller; the Arlington Heights concert band, under the direction of F. C. Schmoyer, and the "Four Hoarsemen," a barbershop quartet made up of Fred Jasper, Barney Erickson, Dan Krebsbach and Stan Myers.

AL KENTNER and his "Krazy Klown" band will entertain Friday night. The band will travel around the park, entertaining with comical and musical acts.

Saturday night Harry Tropper's Viennese band, formerly Louis's Hungry Five of Old Heidelberg Inn, will take the limelight, along with a trio of talented girl singers called "The Charmers."

Sunday, August 3, the entertainment will begin at 2 p. m., when the famous Tad Tasky, comedy clown and magician, formerly with Ringling Brothers, as the featured act. In addition the Range Riders, complete in western attire, will sing and play.

The final act on the program will take place Sunday evening and will star the New Notes, Marie Guilano and partner.

MANY ATTRACTIVE booths, stocked with valuable merchandise, will be on the grounds for visits between shows, as well as the usual festival rides. Tasty sandwiches, prepared by the VFW auxiliary, Mrs. Lorraine Kehe, chairman, will be available at the refreshment stand, and are guaranteed to fill "that empty feeling in the tummy" one usually acquires at a festival.

Sidelights will include an exhibit by the Arlington Heights police department, in chare of Chief Carl Skoog. The exhibit will display safety devices and equipment used in promoting and teaching safety habits.

A display of field telephones, small arms, machine guns, mortars and 57mm recoilless rifles will be shown by Company M, 228th Inf. Regt. of the Illinois National Guard, with Capt. Zar and Sgt. Hummel in charge.

VALUABLE AWARDS, including a $1,000 defense bond, will be among the special attractions at the festival.

Admission to the festival grounds and to all entertainment is free. A portion of the proceeds from this affair will be set aside, as in the past, to help pay for the Post's new club house.

Post Commander, H. Luettschwager, said, "The Post and its auxiliary hope that ground can be broken for the new club house soon after the closing of the festival."

Falls Into Water Filled Ditch; Nearly Drowns

Willis Jensen Jr., 2, was revived Wednesday morning by the Arlington Heights fire department resuscitator squad after nearly drowning in an open ditch along Frederick st.

Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Jensen Sr., 845 N. Hickory, had been playing with neighbor children when he fell into the ditch, which was filled with water from Tuesday night's storm. The children summoned help and a neighbor called the fire department.

NEIGHBORS have been concerned about the existence of the ditch for some time and have tried in vain to have it either closed or properly guarded. The ditch, said to be eight feet deep in some spots, was dug nearly a month ago to install catch basins in a new real estate development under construction.

Mrs. F. Menesee, 901 N. Hickory, said, "We begged for some action on this condition before something like this happened. It has been a narrow escape, and the neighbors, as well as myself, hope there doesn't have to be a fatality before this hazard is corrected."

Remove Needle Swallowed by 10-Month Old Girl

Judith Koelper, 10 month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Koelper, Palatine rd., Arlington Heights, underwent an operation Saturday to remove a needle she had swallowed three weeks before.

The child apparently got the needle from her two year old brother. The first the mother knew of it was when the baby started to choke. The needle was lodged crosswise in her throat and the mother rushed her to a doctor. By the time she arrived Judith had swallowed the needle.

Taken to St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, she was kept under observation, with hopes that the needle would pass through. When it became lodged in the duodenum the operation became necessary. Judith is recovering satisfactorily, but she will have to remain in the hospital for some time.

Woman Killed, 18 Injured In Seven Week End Accidents

Robert Schultz, 22, of Devon ave., Bensenville, was seriously injured Sunday at 2:20 a.m. when he apparently lost control of the car he was driving and hit a bridge abutment 300 feet south of route 62 on Busse hwy.

Schultz, who sustained a broken leg and other injuries, is at Elmhurst hospital.

Geraldine Hogreve, 17, of Arlington Heights, a passenger in the car, sustained slight injuries. Miss Hogreve, an employee of the A & P in Arlington Heights was released from Elmhurst hospital Tuesday.

Woman Killed

Mrs. Harry A. Wolfe of Chicago died as the result of injuries sustained in an accident Monday at 5:30 p.m. at Touhy ave. and Mount Prospect rd.

Her husband, Harry A. Wolfe, 55, of 2628 Farwell ave., Chicago, was traveling west on Touhy ave. when his car was hit at the intersection by a car driven by William Striplin, 42, of 5807 S. Wabash ave., Chicago. Striplin was going south on Mount Prospect rd.

Mr. Wolfe is division manager of the railway sales department of the Lehon Co., Chicago.

Sixteen more persons were injured in five other accidents this week.

Charles and Olga Galitz, both 59, of 1439 N. Mayfield ave., Chicago, were taken to Elmhurst hospital for treatment for injuries received Tuesday at 7:50 p.m. in an accident at routes 83 and 62.

Lawrence E. Vraney, 26, of Box 115, Fox River Grove, said that as he approached the intersection at 83 going west on 62, he looked both ways and saw no cars. He shifted and started across when he saw the car driven by Charles Galitz in front of him. He could not avoid hitting Galitz.

Galitz told Cook County highway police that he was going north on 83 and slowed down as he approached the intersection. He claims that Vraney, who was going west, went through the

Five Injured

Five persons were injured Tuesday afternoon when the car driven by Harry J. O'Donnell, 35, of 141 E. Tenth st., Lockport, Ill., a guard, was run off the road by an unknown car. O'Donnell was going north on Rohlwing rd. when he was forced off the road. His car turned over.

The injured, Harry O'Donnell, Mary Cusimano, 26, Joseph Cusimano, 30, Gloria Marconi, 30, and Edna O'Donnell, 45, all of Joliet, were taken to St. Francis hospital, Evanston.

Routes 12 and 45 were the scene of an accident July 21 at 12 p.m. Those involved were John Joseph Glatz, 56, of 5732 Oleander, Chicago, a painter, and John A. Maloney, 26, 1706 W. Jackson, a chauffeur.

Glatz claims he was following a car across the intersection when Maloney ran into him. Maloney claims he was going south on route 12 and at the intersection Glatz drove out from behind a truck and he was unable to stop.

The injured, all in the car driven by Maloney, were Ernest F. Rollett, 72, Evelyn Rollett, 65, Ida Kennedy, 57, J. Waikley, 60, Robert E. Stokes, 60, and Thomas Kennedy, 58. Injured were taken to St. Francis hospital, Evanston.

Falls Asleep

Jesus Manuel Aniz, 19, and a farmer, of Box 36, Mount Prospect, was injured Sunday afternoon when he evidently fell alseep while driving east on 62. He swerved off the road about 100 feet from the intersection of 62 and 83 and hit a tree. He was taken to Elmhurst hospital for first aid.

According to County highway police, as Donald Jaroche, 19, of 2242 Western ave., Chicago, was going southwest on Rand rd. July 17 at 10:30 p.m. a truck driven by Howard K. Graff, 35, of Box 48, Wheeling, pulled out of a driveway. Jaroch hit Graff in the rear.

Injured were Frank Kures, 27, who sustained a broken arm, and Donald Jaroch, who sustained a broken nose. They were taken to St. Francis hospital.

Additional accidents involved property damage only. Some of the above wrecks were towed by Arlington Fender and Body Shop.

Begin Work on 168 Home Subdivision

Development of the Arlington Greens subdivision, located in the northeast section of Arlington Heights, will begin within the next few weeks.

Joseph Horowitz, developer, appeared before the village board Monday night seeking approval of the plat survey for location of 57 of the 168 homes, which are to be erected in Arlington Greens during the next 18 months. He told the board he will complete the subdivision in units, though he will lay storm sewers, sanitary sewers and water mains in the entire subdivision at one time. Streets and sidewalks will be completed as each unit of homes is finished.

ARLINGTON Greens is bounded on the south by Oakton, west by Douglas ave. and the north by Olive st. Homes of 12 different designs will be erected, and placed in the subdivision according to village ordinance regarding architectual design.

The board accepted the plat survey regarding location of homes. Horowitz applied for building permits on the 57 homes Tuesday.

Paul Peterson, subdivider in Eastwood subdivision, will be notified to have the village engineers draw up plans for the improvement of Beverly lane, with the request that they try to salvage as much as possible of what has already been installed.

Curbs, gutters and sidewalks have been built, but since they were not set at the proper grades work on the paving was stopped by the village. Plans and specifications for the improvement of that street have never been submitted to the village board for approval. To date Peterson has not presented a set of plans to the village, so the board took the above action to assure getting a street which will meet village specifications.

A REQUEST was received by the board to have two lots rezoned in the 100 block on S. Highland ave., from multiple dwelling to parking lot classification. The owner desires to erect a parking lot, which could accommodate 26 autos.

The matter was taken under advisement until more information relative to the over-all village plan was received.

An ordinance vacating an alley in back of lots 1-8 in Arlington Park Subdivision was passed. The board also approved an ordinance annexing lots 57, 68, 71, 94 and the west half of lot 83 in Scarsdale Estates to the village.

The first payment on the sewer and water improvement project now underway, in the amount of $43,128.14, was approved by the board.

Motor fuel tax allotment for June for the village of Arlington Heights amounted to $3,320.87.

Village Improvements No Longer Just Talk; 1952 Sees Action

If 1951 was the year for long range planning in Arlington Heights, 1952 has become the year for action and fulfillment. Many hours spent in board meetings and studies have brought the plans for 1951 from the "paper" stage to reality, as borne out for the Herald photographer in her rounds this week.

An Arlington Heights Herald story of last December sums up the plans for village improvements undertaken last year.

The story related how the Arlington Heights village board had completed preliminary plans for sewer and water extension to relieve the present overburdened facilities; reported on the progress of the Dunton ave. widening program, which had been hanging fire for more than two years; asked the fate of an over-all ornamental street lighting project for the business district during 1952; inquired whether 1952 would see action on a new depot and post office; told the progress of the new dial telephone system; discussed the planning engineers, hired to make a complete survey of village needs and then recommend long range plans for improving same; and asked the future of the railroad parks, which the railroad considered selling.

These issues had kept the village dads burning the midnight oil many a night during 1951. Today, just seven months later, practically all of these plans are in the process of construction, nearing completion, or actually a reality.

Sewer and Water

The million dollar sewer and water improvements project is now underway. Work has begun on the Rockwell st. relief sewer, the enlarging of the sewage treatmen plant, and the drilling of a new well, which are all a part of the project.

In the event of no unforseen delays the entire project should be completed by this time next year.

Dunton Avenue

The widening of South Dunton ave., from Davis st. to Sigwalt, it now in full swing. Its erection is causing much confusion and inconvenience in the business district, but its completion is expected to bring considerable relief to the present "loop" traffic tieups. The project should be finished by the latter part of August.

Ornamental Lights

Ornamental street lighting has been approved for Dunton ave., from Davis st. to Sigwalt. The project is tied in with the present widening program, and will serve as a preview of what the entire business district could look like if an over-all ornamental street lighting program were adopted.

Depot-Post Office

Now in the process of getting a $20,000 face lifting job is the Chicago and North Western railroad depot. This "ugly duckling" should look like a "prima donna" by this time in October.

Goals for '52

From December 28, 1951, Arlington Heights Herald

- Sewer extension
- Water extension
- Ornamental lighting
- New depot
- New post office
- Dial phones
- Village survey
- Keep the parks

A new post office will be a reality by the end of the year. The government recently accepted the bid of Anton P. Mourek of Cicero, who will erect a building for a post office on W. Campbell ave., immediately west of the A & P store. The lease on the present post office expires January 15, having been extended one year from its expiration last January.

Dial Telephones

Dial telephone service went into effect Saturday at midnight, a few months ahead of its scheduled completion. Patrons of Illinois Bell, serviced through the Arlington Heights exchange, heaved a sigh of relief when the dial system began. For the past few years telephone service in this area hasn't been up to par, because of lack of facilities and help, due to the rapid growth in the area's population. Illinois Bell promises that under the new system the headaches of the past few years will soon be forgotten.

Complete Survey

Stanton and Rockwell, planning engineers employed by the village to study its needs and recommend a long range plan, completed its survey the end of June. Some drastic changes have been recommended, and it will take many years, if the recommendations are carried out in their entirety, to realize such changes.

The village now at least has a long range plan to use as a guide for future expansion, but it does not necessarily mean it will adopt all the engineer's recommendations.

Railroad Parks

Back in December there was a possibility the railroad parks, so long a thing of beauty in Arlington Heights, would be sold for commercial purposes. To date there has been no definite settlement as to what will be done with the parks, but it is reported "off the record" that there is a good chance they will remain parks for some time to come. It is hoped this is a statement that can be put "on the record" in the near future.

Boy, 8, Hit by Truck While Crossing Street

Jack Mutti, 8, of 314 N. Beverly lane, Arlington Hts., was injured July 17, when he was struck by a truck belonging to Lattof Motor Sales and driven by Walter Hanson, also of Arlington Heights.

The boy's mother had parked her car in front of the bank, at the triangle of Davis and Campbell st., to await his return from the post office. He was struck as he was running across the street.

Hanson, headed west on Campbell, said he saw the lad too late to avoid hitting him.

Dr. H. Paul Carstens administered treatment for a wound on the back of Jack's head. He was later taken to a hospital for X-rays, where it was found he had a concussion and other bruises on his body.

Mrs. Mutti asked the Herald to inquire if eye witneses to the accident would get in touch with her.

Army Truck-Jeep Collide

An accident Saturday noon on Northwest hwy., between Dunton and Evergreen ave., Arlington Heights, involved an army truck and jeep, returning in a convoy from a National Guard camp in Minnesota.

A truck in the convoy came to a sudden stop and a jeep following close behind collided with the rear of the truck; it in turn was struck in the rear by another army truck.

The jeep driver was injured and was taken by an army ambulance to a local doctor for treatment. The army MP's handled all details of the accident, with army tow trucks clearing the wreckage.

Three Car Collision

Three autos, all traveling west on Northwest highway, Arlington Heights, Saturday afternoon, were involved in a collision at Northwest hwy. and Princeton ave.

Driver of the first auto, Carl Johnson, 2345 W. Irving Park, Chicago, stopped along with other autos being stopped by a police officer directing traffic at Wilke rd. and the highway. The car following behind him, driven by George Washington, 2813 W. Warren ave., Chicago, tried to stop too, but hit Johnson's auto, and Washington's auto, in turn was hit in the rear by another auto driven by L. B. Johnson, 7811 S. Wabash, Chicago.

All autos were able to leave the scene of the accident under their own power. Mrs. Joseph Speechley of Crystal Lake, a passenger in one of the autos, complained that her head and back hurt, but she did not go to a doctor for treatment at that time.

EDITOR ON VACATION, OVERWHELMED BY SUPERHIGHWAYS

Flentie and the Editor in Los Angeles 'Solve' Arlington Heights Parking Problem

The senior editor had a deuce of a time finding the home in Pasadena of Julius D. Flentie, former mayor of Arlington Heights. When the two got together it did not take them long to solve the Arlington Heights parking problem.

J. D. has had the answer a long time, but the editor got his inspiration after traveling 200 miles within 36 hours over the Los Angeles boulevards, mostly at 55 miles an hour. An officer of the Los Angeles police force was the chauffeur. The solution would apply not only to the village of Arlington Heights, but also to the county of Cook.

The great Edens highway recently completed in Cook county is a "poor relation" to the superhighways out here. The west side and northwest super-highways now under construction in Chicago cannot compare to what is happening in Los Angeles, where a free-way is under construction, 35 miles long, that passes through the center of the city of Los Angeles and Hollywood without a stop light or intersection. Hundreds of business buildings and homes in its path were demolished.

The Los Angeles area has a multitude of six lane speedways criss-crossing the city, in one instance at three levels. Neither Julius nor the editor knows where the money comes from, but the people out here think nothing of demolishing huge buildings to make room for paved roads or modern business districts.

The Campbell st. mall that Stanton and Rockwell recommend would become a reality in Arlington Heights if some of the Los Angeles spirit could be implanted in the minds of Arlington Heights business men and civic officials.

The answer to the problem, in our opinion, is to form a junket comprising Walter Krause, Nick Lattof, Harry Knaack, John Kehe and two of the aldermen, selected by lot, and send them to Los Angeles.

After they had got over uttering the oh's and ah's they would take the next plane for home and probably within ten days a lot of unbelievable things would be happening around Arlington Heights.

Why not make up a party of 25 or 50? The editor does not know if the enthusiasm over the suggested solution that came into being Thursday afternoon when the two were seated in the cool living room of Flentie in Pasadena, could withstand the 3,000 mile trip to Arlington Heights, or the ridicule that would probably be heaped upon it by the readers of the Herald generally, but, folks, it is a great idea and the members of the junket would have a glorious time.

The editor knows because he is having just that.

He collected some other ideas he will pass on to his readers next week, if they pass through the censorship being exercised in the editorial office while he is away.

Band Concert to Open Entertainment at 4-H Fair August 15-17

Entertainment for the 4-H Fair will be opened by the Arlington Heights community band under director Fred Schmoyer August 15, 7:30 p. m., at the Arlington Park Race Track.

Director Schmoyer is preparing a program which will be of interest to all. On the program with the band will be several specialty numbers presented by local people.

Other highlights the opening day of the fair will be a livestock day parade and WLS entertainers, Jimmy James and Patsy Montana and her two daughters.

There will be a full evening of entertianment August 16, consisting of home talent, square dance exhibitions, and baton twirling.

August 17 the barbershop quartet will perform, awards will be made, and, of course, the climax will be the crowning of the 4-H King and Queen.

There will be no admission or parking charge and the general public is invited.

Water Ballet Set for August 5 at Arlington Heights Swim Pool

The annual water show of the Arlington Heights park district pool is scheduled for the evening of Tuesday, August 5, according to Art Holland, swim director for the pool. "The Guppies," 30 girls from 13-17 years of age, are putting finishing touches on routines for the show.

The water ballets are built around a calendar theme with Valentine's day, Easter, Hallowe'en and Christmas among the holidays portrayed. Girls participating:

Joan Anderson, Maureen Barret, JoAnn Beatty, Marlene Brown, Sally Cleaver, Barbara Coffman, Nanci Couch, Ginger Cowen, Barbara Day, Jo Aluro, Barbara Ewert, Sana Franke, Arlene Gorder, Arlene Heiss, Judy Hertel, Mary Lagaria, Gwen Latta, Suzanne Marsh, Cindy Meineke, Julia Meyer, Carolyn Pratt, Janet Siegle, Barbara Sheets, Mona Stadell, Sandra Stadell, Betsy Swanson, Janet Winkelman, Wanda Eakins, Maureen Shumaker and Margaret Anderson.

Postal Officials to Fete Air Parcel Post Contest By Helicopter

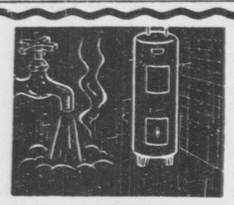

Arlington Heights postmaster Virginia F. Dodge and Louis A. Zinkel of her office will attend a "kick-off luncheon" to inaugurate the air parcel post contest, to be held during the month of August, between the 50 offices served by helicopter air service where they will be addressed by top officials from Washington, D. C. and Chicago.

Prior to the luncheon the entire group of postal officials will be escorted through the new air mail field postal unit where they will observe new streamlined procedures for handling of air mail through Midway airport.

Following the luncheon postal officials will be guests of the scheduled airlines serving Chicago, on a courtesy flight over the area served by helicopter air service.

Sidelights of Arlington Heights

Visit fire chief

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Kouzmanoff of 102 S. Mitchell ave. and their sons, Jimmy, 12, and Jerry, 10, recently visited Elroy Winkelman, Arlington Heights fire chief, who is recovering from an unusual injury at Memorial hospital in Waukesha, Wis. Elroy, who owns and operates the Winkelman Tire and Battery Shop, 115 E. Davis st., suffered serious injuries when he was thrown from a riding horse while spending a week end near Waukesha with his family. Tommy, sports writer for the Chicago Herald-American who formerly edited the sports pages of Paddock Publications, reports that Elroy is in excellent spirits and is looking forward to coming home in another week or two. During his convalescence his wife is managing their business.

Visit here

Mrs. Carl Ewert's niece, Miss Jane Lee Sigwalt and her mother of Joliet, spent last week end visiting here. Miss Sigwalt, who is home for the summer, taught last year at the Kamehameha school for girls in Hawaii and will return there in the fall. At a tea given by her aunt last Friday she spoke on the politics, geography, history and school system of the island. She also showed pictures and did two Hawaiian dances for the 35 guests. Among the items of interest she showed guests were the salad trays of monkey pod wood and the Hawaiian wood roses, actual flowers which seem like wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peeters of Washington, D. C., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Peeters Sr. last week. The young Mr. and Mrs. Peeters both work in Washington and attended several sessions of the Republican convention. Mrs. Eleanor Fitzsimmons of Chicago also visited Mrs. Peeters for four days last week.

Howard A. Barker and daughter, Ann Elizabeth, of New Jersey are spending the week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Barker. The men are brothers.

W. R. Goodrich and family of Edwardsville, Ill., visited the H. Hastings and other relatives here last week.

Mrs. Ellen Sprecher of Milwaukee visited her sister, Mrs. George Orth, for three days last week.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Powers and son, Scott, of Chicago visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Schulte and family Sunday afternoon.

Patti Folkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Folkman of Meyer rd., Mount Prospect, spent several days last week visiting her great aunt, Mrs. Albert Klein, here.

Guests of Mrs. Alma Lindstrom last week were her great niece and her family of Newcastle, Pa.

Mrs. Laura Taylor of Urbana, Ill., is here visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stites, and her grandchildren, Charlene and Denise.

Guests

Several women called on Mrs. Edward Bolte in honor of her birthday Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Curtiss Dahl, Miss Hazel Nelson and Tom Poston, the latter a member of the Chevy Chase resident company, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Espenshade at the Post and Paddock club at Arlington Park. Afterward they enjoyed the races from the box of Stuyvesant Peabody as guests of sportscaster, Tom Duggan.

Vacationers

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hoffman and family returned recently from a vacation in Kenora, Canada, where they enjoyed good fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Barker and family returned Sunday from a week's vacation in Wautoma, Wis.

Mrs. William Edberg will leave Saturday with a friend from Lexington, Ky., to spend a week or 10 days in Lexington and Cincinnati, Ohio, visiting friends.

Kathleen Clark of S. Vail ave. is vacationing at the home of her friend, Patti Folkman, in Elk Grove township.

The Milton Schoepkes returned Monday from a week's vacation in New York. They visited friends on the east coast.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Anderson and Marcie and Erik returned Saturday from a vacation trip in San Antonio, Tex., where they visited Mr. Anderson's parents.

In Colorado

Miss Nita Glow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Glow, is spending the rest of the summer in Denver, Colo., where she has secured a position with Frontier Airlines.

Suzanne Franke and Sally Cleaver of Arlington Heights and Marlene Brown and Barbara Day of Mount Prospect are spending a week attending the Baptist camp at Conference Point on Lake Geneva, Wis.

Celebrate birthdays

Dana and Christie Laurin, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Laurin, celebrated their second birthdays at a party for the grandparents last Saturday.

Visiting his father

George Orth has been going to Milwaukee every other day to visit his father who is ill.

Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. James Yates and family and Mr. and Mrs. Reg Peterson of Park Ridge spent Sunday picnicking at Indiana Dunes State park.

Visit museum

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stoeffel and son, Micky, Roger Simon and Kenny Helfers spent Sunday at the Museum of Science and Industry.

In hospital

Arthur Shea is registered as a medical patient at St. Theresa hospital, Waukegan.

Kenneth Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw of 725 S. Mitchell, has returned from St. Joseph's hospital, Elgin, where he underwent surgery for acute appendicitis Tuesday evening.

Return home

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fritz and son, Edward, have returned from a two week trip east. They attended their daughter, Laura's, wedding July 12 in Pottstown, Pa., and also took in New York while they were gone.

Consider Gas Main Along Quintens Road

The county board committee on roads and bridges Monday referred to a utilities subcommittee a request by the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois to install a gas main along Quintens rd., from Kenilworth ave., south 750 feet, in Palatine township.

June Pfingsten Dies At Masonic Hospital; Funeral Thursday

June Audrey Pfingsten, 27, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Pfingsten, Arlington Heights, died Monday night at Illinois Masonic hospital, Chicago.

June worked as a correspondent for Paddock Publications for the past three years. Though confined to a wheel chair all of her life, June was one of the most remarkable persons this reporter has ever known. She faced life with a smile and never complained, despite the constant suffering she had to endure because of her illness.

As one person put it, "We could all take a lesson from June. She had every reason to be unhappy, yet she fought for her life with a will to keep herself happy and always had a cheerful word for everyone she met."

June was graduated from Arlington Heights grade school. She made costume jewelry to sell and also did telephone saleswork, besides writing local news for this paper. Her hobby was her two little dogs, which were her constant companions.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, July 24, at 2 p.m., from Lauterburg and Oehler funeral home. Rev. W. F. Kamphenkel will officiate and interment will be in Acacia Park.

Answer to National Plea

From two forceful national magazine articles has come a plea to remove the "death seat" nickname from the right front seat of the American automobile.

Informing the motoring public that two out of every three auto deaths occur in this seat — right next to the driver — "Popular Science" and "People Today," two national magazines, have urged that the front seat of automobiles be equipped with (1) recessed instrument panels (2) protective crash pads and (3) a pop-out type windshield.

What better way to answer this plea for your family's safety than to point to the "World's Safest Front Seat" of the 1952 Kaiser Manhattan?

Clearbrook Motors, Inc., Opened for Business

Two young men from Arlington Heights and one from Palatine, long associated in automobile sales in Northwestern suburbs, have opened for business the Clearbrook Motors, Inc., with an office at 104 W. Northwest hwy., Mount Prospect. They are: R. H. "Bud" Peters, president of the new enterprise, Arlington Heights; W. W. "Bill" Bicknase, secretary-treasurer, Palatine, and W. H. "Bud" Dick, vice-president, Arlington Heights. Specializing in used cars, their "lot" at Northwest hwy. and Elmhurst ave., Mount Prospect, was opened officially Monday, July 21.

Arlington CPA

Wilbert W. Pate, 1112 Harvard rd., Arlington Heights, was recently elected to membership in the Illionis society of certified public accountants. A graduate of Northwestern, Pate is associated with the firm of Rubel, Fields, Godow & Lawrence, CPAs.

He received his Illinois CPA certificate as the result of the written three-day state examination, given in November, 1951.

Knifer Held to Grand Jury

Nicholas Suarez, 27, arrested July 16 for mass stabbings the same day along Campbell ave., Arlington Heights, has been bound over to the grand jury and is being held on a $20,000 bond.

THE FOUR VICTIMS, George Bach of Cary, Pat Ricklefs, Mount Prospect, Mrs. Goodrun Jacobs, Chicago, and Edward C. Bowman, Indiana, are all recovering. Bach had to be hospitalized due to a punctured liver but has now been released.

Suarez stabbed Bach, his first victim, at the Vail Tavern, where Bach was having lunch. He ran from there east on Campbe'l street, knifing the other three persons as he passed them. Police and citizens chased him as far as George st. and State rd., where he disappeared in a wooded section.

Neighboring police departments, as well as state and county highway police, helped local police search the area all afternoon and evening, but to no avail. Suarez was again spotted around 9:30 p. m. by Tom Gillen, cab company owner in Arlington Heights, at the railroad station. He notified police, who captured Suarez a few minutes later.

SUAREZ told police he took a 2 p. m. bus to Chicago, and left the colthes he wore during the stabbings, and the knife he used on his victims in a locker at the Chicago and North Western depot. They were later picked up by local police.

Suarez, who cannot speak or understand English, thought the people in the tavern were talking and laughing about him, became enraged, knifed Bach and while in flight struck at others in his path. Edmund Grant, assistant state's attorney, said a psychiatric examination probably would be asked when he was taken before the grand jury.

Until the previous Saturday Suarez had been employed as a dishwasher at Eddie's Restaurant, Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights.

Ronald Taggart Guest on Youth Wants to Know Television Panel

Ronald Taggart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taggart, Arlington Heights, appeared on the "Youth Wants to Know" television panel Wednesday night, when Sen. Estes Kefauver was panel guest.

Taggart, a graduate of Arlington Heights high school, appeared twice last winter on the Herald-American teen-age panel, which discussed dope addiction.

This fall Ronald will enter Purdue university to study mechanical engineering.

TB X-ray Unit to Be in Heights Monday

Free chest X-rays will be offered residents 15 years old and over, Monday, July 28, when a mobile unit is parked at the village hall, 101 W. Davis st., Arlington Heights.

X-raying hours are from 12 noon to 6 p. m.

THE UNIT intended to serve as an adjunct to the routine community, industry, food handler and school surveys conducted in various parts of the year, is available primarily to persons needing large 14x17 in. X-rays for pre-employment, pre-marital, prenatal, and licensing purposes, or as follow-up to suspicious signs found in small-film surveys. However, since the unit can take small "survey" X-rays, too, persons who have not checked their chests for TB within the past year, can do so at this time.

The unit, scheduled to visit this community the 4th Monday of every other month, is being provided by the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium district in cooperation with the Christmas Seal-sponsored Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county and municipal health departments.

by MRS. CHARLES KULE

Several months ago the Nurses' club of Arlington Heights expressed the desire to place some new books on the shelves of their local library. It was suggested then that inasmuch as we were planning to move into our new building that this project be carried out at that time.

We are happy at this time to acknowledge the generosity of this group in placing new books on our shelves for the use of our patrons.

AMONG THOSE recently received and ready for circulation are the following: "The Parents' Manual" by Anna W. M. Wolf, senior staff member, Family Consultation Service Child Study Association of America. The Book-of-the-Month Club News had this to say for the book: "If babies could read they would certainly recommend this volume to their parents."

This is a book for parents who want to be successful, for those who feel there is more to bringing up children than washing their faces and feeding them three times a day. It is written with an understanding of the difficulties and the bewilderments that beset both parents and children. It is not full of complicated rules, of "dos" and "don'ts" and "under no circumstances."

Modestly, and in a frendly manner, Mrs. Wolf discusses a number of the points that she has found to be vital in her experience as a parent. She analyzes and advises about them with the wisdom that she has gained in her years as a professional student of children. In a community of homes with young children, this promises to be one of the most popular books in the library.

THERE PROBABLY never has been a time in the history of our country when it was more important for a man to know how to get along with other people. In times of expanding frontiers it was possible for him to go off by himself and carve a niche in the world without caring greatly what others thought of him.

In times of industrial expansion there was a place for everyone with skill and knowledge and energy. Today something more is required. If one is to be successful in almost any arena of human activity, he must have the knack of getting along with others. He must understand them, must attune his conduct to theirs, must be able to win their friendship, their respect, and their cooperation.

The book, "Getting Along with People," by Milton Wright will help readers to find a fuller, richer and happier life.

LEON J. SAUL, M. D., in describing his book "Emotional Maturity" says, "There are no problem children, only problem environments and parents."

One of the medical journals describes it in the following words: "It clarifies, formulates and presents in understandable fashion the factors influencing emotional development — the defects which cause emotional dependence, the stepping-stones to self-reliance and independence which originate in parent-child attitudes and feelings."

This book reveals the basic similarities in what men feel and can stand as well as individual differences in kind and degree of sensitivity. It shows how man tries to satisfy his powerful, manifold and often conflicting needs and desires, and points out the relationship of inner training, standards, ideals, inhibitions and conscience to this complex interplay of emotional forces.

Marshall Field Denied Tavern Permit for Sportsman's Farm

Due to several objections from neighbors surrounding the new Fielddale Farm development on Higgins rd., Schaumburg township, officials of Marshall Field and Co. have decided not to serve liquor on the premises.

The proposed sportsman's farm is expected to go into operation in September. The development will be used to test shotguns and sports equipment, by individuals buying from Field's.

The Cook county zoning board had been asked to rezone 43¾ acres from residential to a tavern and amusement district. Among those vigorously objecting were Mrs. Arthur Hammerstein, former silent film star, and Frank J. Rathje, president of the Chicago Bank and Trust Co.

The farm will include an artificial lake, well stocked with fish, and a shooting range where devices will be developed which simulate the flight of birds for hunters to test gunds.

Omaha Woman Sues Northbrook; Damaged Walk Causes Injuries

Bess H. Parish of Omaha, Nebraska, filed a personal injury suit in Superior court Wednesday, against the village of Northbrook, asking $25,000 damages.

In the suit she claims that on November 27, 1951, at about 3 p. m., she was walking in front of 1367 Shermer ave., in Northbrook, and the sidewalk was broken, crumbled, depressed, with loose fragments of broken stone making the surface rugged.

She claims that because of the sidewalks' uneven condition, she tripped, and her feet gave way on the unevenness, throwing her to the ground, and injuring her.

CIRCLING THE TOWN

BY PHYLLIS KNIGHT

That midsummer calm is upon us, probably in the main due to the excessive heat which continues day after day. Whatever ambition one might have had earlier is sapped, and more and more are content simply to lounge in lawn chairs "watching their gardens grow."

The end of the racing season this Saturday concludes the session of hurry here, and crowds of people heading for the track will cease to invade the town. Except for country-bound travelers on week ends, traffic along the highway will diminish too.

Campers are beginning to return from short sessions, and they'll swell the swarms of boys and girls to frequent the pool and park.

Carnivals — both here and in neighboring towns — draw the people who want an evening out of their yards and like to support a cause. The VFW's affair is the next one coming to the village.

The climax of this midsummer feeling comes when one realizes that school starts just five weeks from Monday! Truly, summer won't be too long with us.

All those who helped make the American Legion July 4 carnival the big success it was by contributing their time and energy toward working in the various booths were invited to join the fun at a Monte Carlo party Saturday night at Legion hall.

As the participants arrived they were given a goodly sum of "play" money to spend or increase as they could through any games they wanted to play. At the end of the evening a group of prizes were auctioned off to the highest bidder — and desirable prizes they were, including an electric french fryer, a handsome lamp, a knife set and several canned hams.

Also greeting them near the door was a large buffet table, complete with several items to please every taste. In the forefront was everyone's favorite, a huge mound of shrimp, just ripe for dipping. Needless to say, frequent trips to the buffet were made by those enjoying the various games.

The party was truly a bonus for the loyal legionnaires and friends of the Legion who worked so hard on the carnival.

Nice, Isn't It?

Nice, isn't it, to pick up the telephone, hear an instant dial tone, and then immediately be able to call one's number? Since midnight Saturday Arlington's new dial system has been in operation and is meeting with universal praise. Everyone, it seems, likes to depend upon himself to get his number.

And nice, isn't it, to see that at last the North Western is actually working on the depot improvements and not just talking about it? And the Dunton avenue widening, even though causing a temporary inconvenience, is well worth it and will soon facilitate driving on that much-traveled street.

Singing Club Entertains Vets

The Friendly Singing club of Arlington Heights, an affiliate of the American Women's Voluntary Services, sponsored a picnic for disabled veterans and their families and friends at the Lake ave. Forest Preserve, north of Des Plaines, on route 45.

Three hundred invitations were sent to those in Vaughan hospital and those who have been discharged and are now living at home More than 350 people were present.

Among those present were the Robert Kohls of LaGrange, the John Hreckos, the Melvin Leonards and the Emil Bruckners, all of Hinsdale, the Adamciks of Des Plaines, the O'Connors of Cicero and the Stockslagers of Brookfield. From Westchester were Joe Janhuba and a friend, the newly married Bernice and Henry Van Dyke and Carl Durik, a vet who has not been able to attend very many affairs since his injury. He surprised everyone when he arrived with his mother and father, a brother and a friend.

'Summer and Smoke' Held Over at Quartette

"Summer and Smoke," Tennessee Williams' drama of the moral disintegration of a young spinster, has been held over by popular demand for another week at the Quartette summer theatre, Lincoln and Touhy.

The play began its second week Tuesday, July 22.

F. Hugh Herbert's riotous comedy, "For Love or Money," concerning an aging matinee idol, originally scheduled to begin Tuesday, July 22, has been postponed until Tuesday, July 29.

Music Students Attend Convention

Twelve El Rey Music Center students and teachers attended the International Music League convention last week at Berea, Ohio. Eight students were entered in the championship contests.

Pat Ferreri of El Rey's studio became world champion Spanish guitarist in the junior division. The El Rey Serenaders received a gold cup in the B division entries, and Dick Sabl, also of the Chicago studio, received a blue ribbon in the Hawaiian guitar solo division.

The trophies will be on display in the Arlington Heights store soon. El Rey students enter these contests every year.

NEW NEIGHBORS .... IN THE CITY OF GOOD NEIGHBORS

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Couch
626 S. Dryden ave.

New residents at 626 S. Dryden are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Couch who moved here March 29 from Algonquin, Ill. Three factors persuaded them to move here: they liked the town and the school system and they found a house to rent.

Four children complete the family. Richard and Nancy, 14 and 13 respectively, will be sophomores at high school in the fall. Judy, 8, will be in fourth grade at the South school. David is just 1 year old.

Mr. Couch, who enjoys golf, swimming and chess in his spare time, is district sales manager of Moore Business Forms of Chicago. Mrs. Couch enjoys knitting and reading.

Candy, a springer spaniel, is the family pet.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Shishkoff
1021 N. Race ave.

A ranch home that suited their needs perfectly brought Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Shishkoff to Arlington Heights. They moved here from Chicago February 1.

Mr. Shishkoff is general manager of the Atlas Van Lines Inc. in Chicago. Both Mr. and Mrs. Shishkoff are interested in refinishing furniture and home decoration. Mrs. Shishkoff also likes to sew and is interested in joining the Junior Woman's club.

They have a son, Andrew, who is 4 years old, and a daughter, Debra Gail, who is 2.

FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1952

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Lemke
713 N. Salem ave.

The Arthur W. Lemkes moved here from Palatine March 22. Mr. Lemke had lived here before and they wanted to build their own home here.

Mr. Lemke is with City Wide Installation in Chicago. In his spare time he likes golfing and gardening. Mrs. Lemke likes sewing, knitting, crocheting and gardening.

They have a daughter, Marcia Ann, who is 3 years old.

Pays Old Bill

A man dropped into a builders' supply place in Quincy, Mass., and paid a 33-year-old bill for $253. He explained that he had come from Kingston, N. Y., and he had not only had to wait to save that money but also his travel money.

SHOPPING with SHARON

The heat seems to be a major topic of discussion—it has even been making the front pages in the metropolitan newspapers . . . special columns tell you just how to keep cool and they all recommend cool drinks and nourishing cooling foods and desserts. There's nothing more refreshing than sherbet and at Sieburg Rexall Drugs Borden's are featuring a special during July on all their sherbets . . . lemon, orange, raspberry and lime . . . two pints for just 59 cents.

Now even those on diets or those just watching their figures can enjoy ice cream. Sieburg's have a new non-fattening frozen dessert that comes in all flavors and tastes just like ice cream. It's called Charlotte Freeze and is just 19 cents a pint. They tried it and couldn't tell the difference between it and ice cream.

Summer is definitely not over, so the clearance of all children's summer togs at Pearce's on the corner of Chicago ave. and Bothwell st. in Palatine will be most welcome. I suggest you get theer early Friday. Included in the sale will be girls' shorts, pedal pushers, sleeveless blouses, swim suits, and cotton dresses . . . boys' seersucker pants and shirts, cotton jackets, swim suits and terry cloth T-shirts. There will be a dollar reduction on all $2.95 to $4.95 articles . . . those at $1.50 will be $1.39; $1.95, $1.50 and $2.50, $1.79. Stop in early for a wide selection.

Their sale on ladies' dresses and sportswear will continue while the merchandise lasts. These sales are really wonderful . . . Mother got two lovely dresses at quite a saving for her Florida trip this fall. Nothing is soiled or even looks shopworn.

Wala Washerette at 822 W. Northwest hwy., so popular during this hot weather, is inaugurating new hours during the monih of August. They will close at 5 p.m. instead of 6 p.m. Wednesdays and Saturdays. No wash will be serviced on Saturdays unless it is brought in before closing at 9 p.m. Friday. There will be only self-service on Saturdays. You can save 15 cents a load by servicing your own wash.

And don't forget about the 48-hour shirt service at Wala . . . it's a wonderful thing for busy housewives.

This constant talk about the weather seems rather repetitious, but there are so many ways to reduce work and make everyone feel so much more pleasant that I just can't help telling all about them. You'll cut out a lot of excess work if you get some of those bamboo, straw or plastic place mats that Shirley Shanklin is featuring at the Bounty Fair on Northwest hwy. in Palatine. They're so colorful and you just wipe them off . . . no washing and ironing of tablecloths any more . . . and they're priced from 25 cents to $1.

You'll find everything you need for summer and outdoor dining from baskets to lazy susans at the Bounty Fair. Drop in soon and just browse around.

Entertaining? Nothing to it . . .

When you have this help to do it!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

That material knowledge and human doctrines are inadequate to reveal the true nature and infinite wisdom of God, will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 27. The title of the Lesson-Sermon is TRUTH.

The Golden Text is from I John (5: 6) "It is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth."

Bible selections (King James Version) in the Lesson-Sermon include:

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . . And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father), full of grace and truth . . . And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" (John 1: 1, 14, 16, 17).

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"'The Word was made flesh.' Divine Truth must be known by its effects on the body as well as on the mind, before the Science of being can be demonstrated . . . Christ, Truth, was demonstrated through Jesus to prove the power of Spirit over the flesh,—to show that Truth is made manifest by its effects upon the human mind and body, healing sickness and destroying sin . . . Christ illustrates that blending with God, his divine Principle, which gives man dominion over all the earth" (pp. 350, 316).

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

Time to get ready to go to camp again. Each summer I work with one junior camp for the Presbyterians in the metropolitan area. In the past few years church junior camping has been growing by leaps and bounds.

Some of the Baptist groups were the earliest to become convinced that such camps were practicable; of course there had always been private camps for juniors, and even for primaries, but these were not designed for the ordinary working parent's pocketbook. The Presbyterians were the next to get into junior camping on a large denominational scale. And within the past year or so, the National Council of Churches of Christ has been assisting each denomination to train leaders for this special type of camping.

JUNIORS REQUIRE more special attention than older groups. If you have some in your family — aged about eight to eleven, in grades four, five or six — you know how you have to check on their ear and neck washing, or toothbrush use, table manners, and a number of other personal and social habits.

A hundred of them means that the problems of one junior are multiplied by somewhat more than a hundred. (This could be called the law of geometric progression in social relations.) Since each family has its own traditions and procedures there is a certain amount of difference from child to child and leader to leader.

The difference adds up to the significance of the living experience for juniors, who usually do not have very much experience outside of the familiar home-school-neighborhood circles. Our camp committee tries to select leaders for juniors with more care, even, than is used in selecting leaders for the older groups.

(I should like to add parenthetically that it seems as we realize the importance of early experiences we may someday reach the point when salary and educational differentials between public school personnel will be in the right direction — with kindergarten and primary teachers being recognized as the most important contributors to the general value of the child's school experience.)

THE CHURCH camp has been achieving remarkable growth for two basic reasons: it is operated on a non-profit basis, and its leadership is almost entirely on a voluntary basis; and children want to go camping. When the average parent is assured that his children will be well taken care of, that their leadership will be mature and capable and will have only the desire to be with and to help their children, and when he is assured that the cost of the child's care will not be a great deal more than the ordinary expenses of a child at home — then, many of them are eager to give their children the benefit of a week, week and a half, 2 weeks, at camp.

The people I work for have appreciated this fact of camps for their children. They recognize the need for leadership for their of our denomination. They are happy for me to be available for one such period each year; and they are encouraged that others make themselves similarly available.

THEY HAVE established a scholarship fund so that our church's children may be encouraged to take advantage of the camping opportunities. This is true of many other churches — and there are few ways in which we may more significantly encourage our children to dedicate themselves to the church throughout their adulthood.

By way of example, more than sixty percent of the young people who come to the Fresbytery of Chicago for ordination or commissioning to Christian professional service are products of church camps and conferences. As the age levels are lowered for camping experience there will be a longer period of training and a greater span of happy experience in Christian community.

TAKE THE ADVICE of Lennie Lenox. Have your furnace and heating system cleaned.

NO SINGLE PART of your housecleaning is more important, for furnaces are subject to corrosion when dirt and soot and ash dust are left to absorb condensation moisture.

PIPE AND FLUES can actually be eaten through by acids which result when soot and moisture get together.

I got Conoco's NEW 1-2-3

"50,000 Miles No Wear" Service!

Thousands of other car owners are discovering what this smart motorist knows: the way to help your engine perform better, last longer, use less gasoline and oil is to get Conoco's great new "50,000 Miles—No Wear" Service!

It's exactly the same service that kept test cars new in Conoco's spectacular "50,000 Miles—No Wear" road test!

In that famous 50,000-mile test, with 1,000-mile drains and proper filter service, test car engines showed no wear of any consequence: in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. Gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000.

Now you can get this same 1-2-3 "50,000 Miles—No Wear" Service, at your Conoco Mileage Merchant's, today!

Here's the Famous "50,000 Miles—No Wear" Service!

1 Your Conoco Mileage Merchant Will Drain Out Grit and Sludge, preferably while engine is hot! "Hot-oil" drains every 1,000 miles flush out grit, dirt, acid and contamination—leave your engine sparkling clean!

2 He'll Recondition Air and Oil Filters! He'll clean filter elements, replace dirty cartridges, record mileage. Every time hood is lifted, he'll check mileage to be sure filters have been serviced at proper intervals.

HAUL WITH A DODGE AND CUT YOUR COSTS!

"Our Dodge trucks give us exceptional over-all economy,"

. . . says LEO MEUDT
Meudt & Beck Distributing Co., Madison, Wis.

"Economy is one of the many things we like about our Dodges. They're real low on all costs—especially on oil and upkeep.

"These trucks are on the go for 5½ days every week, carrying extra-heavy payloads. They always keep running and have never had any major mechanical trouble.

"The drivers tell us the new Dodge has real comfort and drives like an automobile."

- Cut costs with a Dodge truck "Job-Rated" to fit your job—from ½-ton to 4-ton.
- Power-with-economy is the first principle of a Dodge engine, thanks to L-head design, high-efficiency carburetion.
- Low upkeep is engineered into every Dodge truck with features such as floating oil intake and other Dodge advantages.
- gyrol Fluid Drive—available on ½-, ¾-, 1-ton, and Route-Van models—saves wear and tear.
- Come in today for a good deal!

Save on gas and oil. Every Dodge engine is engineered throughout for top economy. Operating costs stay low, thanks to lightweight aluminum-alloy pistons with chrome-plated top piston rings, 4 rings per piston, and other features.

Save on maintenance. Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks keep you on the road—and out of the repair shop. You get exhaust valve seat inserts, positive-pressure lubrication system, and other big advantages that help prevent costly breakdowns.

Save on long life. Husky frames, sturdy axles and high-capacity springs provide extra strength, lengthen truck life by years and years. Because a Dodge "Job-Rated" truck lasts longer, it will have a high-dollar trade-in value!

Presenting the Younger Generation

All smiles

These happy countenances belong to David and Barbara Gish, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Gish of 642 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights.

Blond and blue-eyed David was 3½ years old when this picture was taken and big sis, Barbara, was 6 years old. Barbara has blue eyes and brown hair. We were unable to contact the parents for further information about the children.

Fisherman

First we have brown-haired, blue-eyed Stephen, a 10 year old and a fifth grader at the South school. Stephen's hobby is fishing and he especially likes to fish with his Daddy at Deer Grove. "He has quite a bit of success at it quantity-wise," laughed Mrs. Hey, "but not much as far as quality is concerned!" Physical education is the school subject that interested this fellow mostly.

Keeps up

Big brothers set the pace in the Hey home and little sister, Nancy, sees to it that she keeps up with them.

Nancy is 5 years old and has light brown hair and blue eyes. She will be in the first grade at the South school this fall. Swimming and dolls are favorite pastimes for this little lady. Nancy, keeping up with the boys, swims in the big pool at the park.

Collector

Here's a real collector. He is blond and blue-eyed Tony, an 8 year old and third grader at the South school.

Tony collects post cards from everyone and everywhere. "He is becoming familiar with the various scenes and is learning quite a bit from this hobby," said his mother. Another and rather unusual hobby for a little fellow is his collection of Caruso records.

Grandparents of these children are Mr. and Mrs. George Inglis and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hey, all of Chicago.

Des Plaines Women Of The Moose To Hold Officers' Night

Women of the Moose, Des Plaines chapter 835, will hold officers' night Thursday, July 24, at their new Moose Lodge at River rd. and Woodland.

All officers and their escorts will wear white formals for this occasion. Guests are invited to this open meeting.

Des Plaines Women of the Moose have invited guest officers from other chapters to officiate. Guests invited are the junior and senior regent from Barrington, the junior graudate regent and chaplain from Brookfield, the treasurer and recorder from River Grove, the guide and assistant guide from Portage Park, and argus and sentinel from Crystal Lake and the pianist from Cicero.

Mrs. H. Hartung, junior graduate regent, and Mrs. L. Peterson, junior regent, have accepted an invitation from Brookfield to officiate at their officers' night July 25. Mrs. John Ermeling and Mrs. W. Berg have accepted an invitation from Cicero July 28.

Women of the Moose are now forming their bowling league. Those wishing to join are asked to call Miss Olive Burnand, secretary of the league, at Va 4-5607.

There will be an officers' meeting July 30 at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Peterson.

Stork Feathers

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hanna of 906 E. St. James st., Arlington Heights, are parents of a son, Robert Conrad, born July 18 at St. Francis hospital, Evanston, weighing 6 pounds 6 ounces. The baby has a sister, Elaine, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Georgia Hanna of Centralia, Ill., is visiting the family at present.

Nancy Rae is the name Mr. and Mrs. Lee G. Hill of Arlington Heights have chosen for their daughter born July 12 at Dependents Care hospital at Great Lakes.

Richard Durland Takes Joan Fortin As Bride

In a candlelight ceremony July 19, Miss Joan Marie Fortin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel G. Fortin of 27 S. Evergreen ave., Arlington Heights, became the bride of Richard Crane Durland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Durland of 510 S. Emerson st., Mount Prospect.

Rev. Edwin I. Stevens officiated at the double ring ceremony held at the South church, Mount Prospect, at 7 p. m. Miss Lucia Beth Stevens sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Miss Rose Marie Schutte at the organ. White gladioli and greens decorated the altar.

The bride wore an ice blue gown of nylon tulle over satin with embroidered lace trim. The full skirt of the gown ended in a train. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a small square cap, and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli and stephanotis.

Miss Rita Fortin, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of yellow nylon net and carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli and deep lavender larkspur.

Miss Wanda Fortin, sister of the bride, and Miss Luanne Durland, sister of the groom, were the junior bridesmaids. Their gowns and flowers were identical to those of the maid of honor.

Donald Jones was best man. Orvilie Bolte and Clifford Heverly, fraternity brothers of the groom, were the ushers.

A reception for 150 guests was held at the VFW clubhouse in Mount Prospect immediately following the ceremony.

The couple are honeymooning at Five Lakes Resort in Spooner, Wis.

At present the groom is still a medical corpsman in the navy, but he will be discharged in January 1953. In February he will return to the University of Illinois to complete his studies toward a medical degree, and he and his wife will live in Champaign. He will return to Potuxent River, Md., U. S. naval air base July 30. His bride will remain at home for the present.

Four Generations Present to Observe 90th Birthday

Four generations were present Tuesday evening when Mrs. Maggie Sackrider of 128 Morrison ave., Forest River, celebrated her ninetieth birthday at a dinner party for friends and relatives at Kruse's restaurant in Mount Prospect.

Mrs. Sackrider has lived in Des Plaines and Forest River for the past 12 years. She now makes her home with her grandson, Irwin Phar.

Besides her grandson, Irwin, her son, Ernest Phar of Arlington Heights, and her great granddaughter, Roberta Kehe, were present representing the four generations. Miss Kehe is the first girl in the family since the birth of her great grandmother.

Mrs. Sackrider, who is in excellent health, shopped for a new Easter outfit and later took a 30-day trip by car to Mount Carmel and St. Louis, Mo., where she visited relatives. (B4

Favorites for Flavor

By LOIS SEILER

Salads are the order of the day! Tossed salads, fruit saalds, aspic salads, fish salads, vegetable salads—the delightful combinations which can be employed in preparing a salad are inexhaustable.

Salads become the main dish on many dinner tables during the summer months. And this is as it should be. From the nutritional and gastronomical standpoint they are just right for hot summer days, and they save mama from hovering over a hot stove. Too, most women have a salad trick or two up their sleeves, and can do amazing things with leftovers and seasonings.

Liking shrimp, today's recipe is one of my favorites for a summertime salad. Easy to make, it contains tomato soup, cream cheese, mayonnaise, celery, onion and the piece de resistance, shrimp.

Lemon jello is used as a congealing agent, and tiny peas are added as the final ingredient.

This smooth and tasty bread is poured into a fish mold or ring mold and placed in the refrigerator. Almost a meal in itself, it can be served with a mayonnaise sauce if desired.

Accompanying the shrimp salad are deviled eggs, potato chips, buttered rolls and iced tea.

Shrimp Salad

1 can tomato soup
3 small packages Philadelphia cream cheese
1 cup mayonnaise
1 cup celery
1/8 cup onion
1 pound fresh or canned shrimp
1 package lemon jello
1 cup hot water
1 small can tiny peas

Heat soup and beat in cheese, until smooth. When cool add the mayonnaise, celery, onion and shrimp.

Dissolve lemon jello in one cup hot water. When cool, add the peas. Blend both mixtures, pour into mold and place in refrigerator.

Dolores Erst Becomes Bride of Steve Kiral

Miss Dolores Erst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erst of 1220 N. State rd., Arlington Heights, became the bride of Steve Kiral Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kiral Sr. of Chicago, July 19.

Rev. Richard Rosemeyer officiated at the 3 p. m. ceremony held at St. James Catholic church in Arlington Heights. Sister Amabilia was the organist.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of ice blue net over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. A tiara of flowers held her short veil in place, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Betty Tischer of Arlington Heights was the maid of honor. She wore a yellow net ballerina length gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Edward Kiral of Chicago, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

Following a wedding trip to the Ozarks, the couple will make their home in Chicago.

The bride is employed at Arlington Heights National Bank.

Dorothy Schlemmer and Robert Anderson Wed

The South church, Community Baptist, Mount Prospect, was the scene of the wedding July 11 of Miss Dorothy Ann Schlemmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Schlemmer of 22 S. George st., Mount Prospect, and Robert R. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Clair Anderson of Hutchinson, Kan.

Dr. Howard Jamieson of the Third United Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Rev. Edwin Ira Stevens of the South church officiated at the candlelight ceremony. Miss Barbara Rahn sang "At Dawning" and the "Wedding Prayer."

The bride wore a ballerina length white gown fashioned with a fitted lace bodice, sheer net yoke, lace collar, short sleeves and a full tulle skirt. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a satin and net cap, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Marilyn Schlemmer, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pale blue ballerina length gown and carried a bouquet of shaded pink rubrum lilies.

Miss Dolores Worley and Patricia Kule were the bridesmaids. Miss Carol Ann Anderson, sister of the groom, was the junior bridesmaid. The bridesmaids wore gowns and carried flowers identical to those of the maid of honor. Miss Anderson wore a pink ballerina length gown.

Rev. Harold Scott of Des Moines, Iowa, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Roy Gustafson, Donald Parkinson and Merle Strobehm were ushers.

A reception for 200 guests was held immediately following the ceremony in the fellowship room of the church.

The couple will make their home in Carter, Ill., for the summer. The groom has charge of the Romine Prairie United Presbyterian church there. The groom is a second year student at Pittsburgh Xenia Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pa.

J. R. Haywood Marks 75th Birthday

Friends and relatives gathered Sunday at the Pine-Fir-Yew estate of the Peter N. Jacobsens on Rand rd., Arlington Heights, to celebrate the seventy-fifth birthday of J. Richard Haywood, father of Mrs. Jacobsen.

Born in Cleveland, Ill., he married Margaret Campbell Sladen and they lived around the tri-cities until Mrs. Haywood's death in 1946. He came to make his home with his daughter last October.

A complete barbecue dinner was served those attending the celebration.

To Organize New Chorus In Palatine

A group under the direction of Mrs. Neal Dean of Palatine is organizing a mixed chorus in Palatine. The organization meeting will be held August 4 at 8 p. m. at the Neal T. Dean home, 114 S. Greenwood, Palanois Park, Palatine.

Lorraine Dean is well known in this area for her musical accomplishments. She was director of the Methodist church choir for four years, accompanist for the Prospect Heights Choral Society for three years and director of the PTA Mother-Singers for three years. She is also an able soloist.

Those interested in singing with the group are asked to contact Mrs. Dean at Palatine 436-J or Mrs. Talbot at Palatine 1310.

More than 30 people have indicated their interest in organizing the group. Tenors and altos are especially needed.

Buying Citrus Fruit

When buying fresh citrus fruits —such as oranges and lemons— for juice purposes, it is particularly important to choose those that feel heavy for their size; for, weight is a pretty reliable guide to the water content—the heavier the fruit, the more water is contained.

St. James To Mark 50th Anniversary

The parish of St. James Catholic church, Arlington Heights, will observe its fiftieth anniversary in this community in September. The new church building, recently completed, will be dedicated at this time.

The events will be combined in a jubilee celebration. A special jubilee booklet will be published commemorating both occasions and containing histories of the parish and its organizations.

The edition will include pictures of parishioners who have been active in parochial groups and parish affairs in the past and at the present time.

Local business establishments and civic groups will have an opportunity to place advertisements in the booklet. Women of the parish will canvas the business area of Arlington Heights and neighobring communities to accept ads from those who wish to place them.

The booklet will be made available to parishioners and friends of the parish on the day of dedication.

84th Birthday

Neighbor Children Help Mr. Chip to Celebrate

Mr. Chips, who has lived on the south side of Arlington Hts. for 49 of his 84 years, had a surprise party last Thursday afternoon that was attended by all the children of his neighborhood.

Since Mr. Chips has been in semi-retirement the last 21 years, he has had the opportunity to observe the children and see them grow up. He has often joined with them in their games and hikes although his age of late has restricted too active a participation. But still he has become a friend to all.

When the party ended, the children all wished Mr. Chips a happy birthday and told him they'd be back next year to help him celebrate his ninety-first birthday.

Mr. Chips, by the way, is a white and tan cocker spaniel who has lived with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bishop at 530 S. Chestnut ave. in Arlington Heights all of his life. And, he's not really 84 years old, but only 12. Each year of a dog's life though is equivalent to 7 years of a human's.

Mr. Chips enjoyed every minute of his party, and what dog wouldn't when ice cream and cake were being served to him and his gifts had such tantalizing odors. Mr. Chips states that he has every intention of celebrating his ninety-first birthday next year in a similar manner.

American Legion to Hold State Convention in Chicago

The department of Illinois American Legion will open their thirty-fourth annual convention July 31 to continue for four days in Chicago.

The Illinois organization representing more than a quarter of a million members will deliberate on important matters passed on up from the 1,138 posts making up the organization representing every section of the state, before passing on their recommendations to the national convention in New York August 24 to August 28. The state convention will be under the directorship of Illinois State Commander Chas. C. Shaw of Paxton. Chairman of the convention is Martin M. Finstad.

The business session of the convention will be held in the Civic Opera House where national leaders including National Commander Donald R. Wilson, Robert A. Vogler, Governor Adlai Stevenson, Senator Dirksen, Lewis Gough, past national vice commander, and Walter Alessandroni, also a past national vice commander, will speak

THE AUXILIARY will hold their sessions at the Palmer House. One of the many highlights of the convention will be the Sunday parade starting at 12:30 p. m. at Chicago ave. and marching down Michigan ave. to Balbo drive.

Sixteen downstate districts will march in this parade along with Cook County Commander Howard W. West and his staff. Commonwealth Edison drum and bugle corps 118 will escort nine districts of Cook county. More than 8,000 will participate in the parade. Mayor Martin H. Kennelly will deliver the opening speech July 31 at the Civic Opera House at 1:30. Cook County Commander Howard W. West will speak for the Cook County Council. Clark Williams will give the Forty and Eight welcome with Agnes Wolff, Illinois head for the Eight and Forty.

SATURDAY evening the organizations making up the Forty and Eight, the honor and fun-making group of the Legion, will stage their annual "Torchlight" parade in the loop at 8:30.

CHARLES C. SHAW

The wedding will take place this fall in California.

The bride-elect will return to San Francisco, where she has ben living for the past year, August 23.

Pulling Fuses in Arlington's Old Telephone Exchange

Awaiting Saturday's midnight signal to pull the fuses in the old telephone building, Arlington Heights, cutting off the power supply to the manual switchboards were J. T. Ransdell, central office maintenance foreman, supervisor in charge (with telephone), and R. E. Wodrich, central office maintenance man, 516 N. Emerson, Mount Prospect. Ransdell lives at 1010 N. Chicago ave., Arlington Heights. Telephones switched from manual to dial in the Arlington Heights exchange area without a hitch. Manager William Lathen was assisted by many telephone officers and technicians who were on hand to make certain that no trouble flared up and spoiled the "inauguration."

EIGHT OF 93 GOLFERS COULD REPEAT IN PADDOCK TOURNEY

Seven local twilight golf leagues are looking forward to the Paddock sponsored tournament for the leaders to be staged at the Mount Prospect Golf club on Sunday, August 17. The teams in each league on top on Friday, August 8 will enter the tournament on a handicap basis. Leagues entered are the same as the past two years, including the two from Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, Rob Roy, St. James, Roselle and Bensenville VFW.

Players Will Keep Score This Year

This year it is planned to change the scoring procedure by not sending scorers with each foursome. The past two years Ed Rash of the Mt. Prospect league lined up members of his group to keep the count and they did a fine job. This year however, each player will be asked to keep his own score and that of one other member of his foursome. It will be easier to check one man than four and after all it is more fun to play golf than to walk around and just count strokes. Each team will have four tournament entries even though they might have had five men on their squad during the season. The past two tournaments have been highly successful and Bob Paddock with the cooperation of Bob Sophie, the Mount Prospect Club manager, hopes that number three will be the best of them all.

Women On Way Up

If the Olympic games are an indication, Russia and the so-called "new order" is developing women who are more athletic than the men. Russia's husky amazons appear to be the class of the women's division while the men of United States are far out in front in track competition. It isn't that the women rule the roost in Russia. Far from that. It is just that under the Communistic system the government has stressed athletics in the extreme for both men and women and the emphasis has been more on individual body building sports than on team competition.

The women are not better than the men but better than the women of the free world who as a rule do not go in for strenuous track sports and gymnastics. Russia has unusual participation but they do not have the expert coaching in track athletics that we have over here. In fact no country can measure up in this respect. That is why United States usually wins the men's track division and why we in this country are inclined to think of the Olympic games largely as track competition in which we excel.

In the Scandinavian countries the winter Olympics seem most important. In this country we are interested in basketball and think the Olympic championship an important team achievement, but taking the world as a whole the team sport of soccer is far the most widely played and most popular.

Getting back to the Russian viewpoint, the part of the Olympic games in which they have the winners will be looked on as the Olympics and Russia the winner. If the Russians run true to form in athletics as in international relations you can be assured of hearing charges of changed rules, unfair discrimination, partial officials, and other excuses for failures to win. This, however, is the attitude of government and press, and not of the athletes. Russian athletes hold most of the world track records, according to Communistic stop watches and measuring tapes. Watch and see how many they have broken by the conclusion of the present track competition.

Few Quarrels

In spite of a few petty quarrels and complaints it is unusual that in a world as upset, and in which there exists as much hatred, suspicion, and distrust as is present, that the Olympic games can be held with so little difficulty. This is all the more unusual when one considers sports are conducted under different rules and competing conditions in different countries.

The fact that they can be held so peaceably is a tribute to the ideals of sports competition with its give and take, observance of rules, and spirit of sportsmanship and fair play. If the diplomats of the world could operate on the same code and basis as the people who are leaders in sports the world would have a pretty fair chance of outlawing war.

Busses Edge Ahead in Golf At Mt. Prospect

Last week was a hot and cold night for the teams in the Tuesday division of Mount Prospect twilight golf league. By hot and cold we mean the teams either did right well for themselves or they laid an egg.

First of all, the H. A. Dooley Real Estate team made nine out of a possible ten points, jumped from eighth to sixth place. Last week the K. R. Whitton Realtors and the Commissioner Busse team were tied for first place. On Tuesday last, the Busse boys made eight points while the Whittons could make four, so the Busse team is again in first place where they have been so much of the season. Mount Prospect Electric and Golden's also took eight points each. They both are now only a few points out of second place and close enough to first to be contenders all the way.

Kermit LeMay enjoyed himself immensely, scoring birdies on the 15th and 16th holes. Other players with birdies were Bill Taylor, George O'Day and Bob Payne.

Standings:

Comm. William Busse	72
K. R. Whitton Realtors	68 5/6
Mt. Prospect Electric	67
Golden's Food Shop	64 1/2
Winkelman's Shell Service	53 1/6
H. A. Dooley Realtors	52 1/2
Moler's Barber Shop	47
Van's	46
Henry Kruse's Schlitz	42 1/3
Keefer's Pharmacy	35 2/3

THE TEAM of Busse Motors stubbornly clings to the lead in the Wednesday division with Illinois Range threatening to make a slight revision in the team standings as the top team finds its position in jeopardy for the first time in 10 weeks. Only 1 1/6 points separate the first and second place teams, while the gap between first and third is also a meager 2 1/6 points.

Birdies for the evening were scored by Carl Oscarson on No. 1, Eddie Lange on No. 4 and Tommy Hawk on No. 13.

Standings:

Busse Motors	60 5/6
Illinois Range	59 2/3

Name Finalists for Tournaments in Lions Olympics at Arlington Heights

Plan Eliminations For Swimming Races

Finalists in four tournaments for the Lions Olympics at Arlington Heights were announced this week by park recreation director Russ Attis with additional information of the swimming races, evening portion of the eventful day, also released.

Both intermediate and midget divisions of boys horseshoes and shuffleboard have been rushing along with finalists in each tournament released this week. About fifty boys participated in each tourney.

WITH 175 BOYS competing in softball, 100 youngsters in tennis directed by Rodney Peltier, 100 in handicraft directed by Kay Steingraber, and 1200 enrolled in swimming classes directed by Art Holland (197 have completed swim tests), the recreation program is moving along at a record pace.

The swimming championship part of the Lions Olympics will start at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, August 6. One hundred medals and ribbons will be awarded boys and girls, all provided by the Arlington Heights Lions club.

BOYS AND GIRLS may enter either the 25 yard backstroke or 25 yard free style or both. Age classes are as follows: 7 and 8, 9 and 10, 11 and 12, 13 and 14, 15 and 16, and 17 and above. Only the five fastest swimmers in each event will be allowed to swim in the finals August 6.

This means that qualifying races must be held. Therefore, all girls who want to swim must report Tuesday, July 29, and boys Wednesday, July 30. All age ten and under should report at 10 a. m. and those age eleven or above at 11 a. m. on these two days.

Parents are invited to attend the finals on August 6. Programs will be passed to spectators and will include the names and qualifying time of all those in the finals as well as last year's champion and the present records for each event. Art Holland, director of the meet, expects most of last year's records to be broken.

ATHLETIC EVENTS for the day will include the 40 yard dash in both boys and girls divisions, base running in both boys and girls divisions, mixed broadjumping and mixed baseball throw. Assembly of children for the parade at 10 Wednesday, August 6, is slated for 9:30. Athletic competition will start at 11 a. m.

Finalists in the various tournaments:

Intermediates, shuffleboard, W. Meyer, R. Meyer, Barber, Thoms, Sanders, Rose, Lambdin and Meehan.

Intermediates, horse shoes, W. Meyer, Halstead, Carlino, Koeppen, Weisenbach, Clark, Sanders and Meehan.

Midgets, shuffleboard, Brodnan, Barron, Link, Nelson, Foley, Farrell, Huebner and Spomer.

Midgets, horse shoes, Link, Blix, Mueller, Helfvogt, Beckman, Buckley, Inman and Becker.

FORTY GIRLS are now enrolled in the girls athletic club with the shuffleboard tournament already started. Ruth Ann Fasick is in charge of this part of the program.

It's Park Ridge vs. Winnetka for County Honors in Legion Ball

Cook county championship finals of Junior Legion baseball is slated to start Saturday afternoon at Park Ridge with the host team opposing Winnetka. Best two out of three series is scheduled for 3 p. m. Saturday, Sunday and Monday at Hinkley field, Park Ridge.

Additional emphasis on the final games to determine county champion is given the game through use of three Winnetka players, all sons of well known sports and radio figures. The sons of Freddie Lindstrom, former major league baseball player, Elmer Layden, Notre Dame coach, and Don McNeil, master of ceremonies of the Breakfast club on the radio, all compete with the Winnetka club.

Coaching the seventh district champs is Pat Lahey.

PARK RIDGE gained the finals by drawing a bye, then beating Argo, fourth district champ, in two games. The Ridgians won Sunday, 17-2, in a power affair, then repeated Monday 2-1, in a pitchers' battle between Al Bean and Dick Strovapka. Argo had defeated Austin of the fifth district, who had dumped Berwyn, county and state champ last year.

Winnetka gained the finals by edging William Randolph Hearst post of the first district, and Illinois post of the third district, who had taken Chicago Heights of the eighth district.

Brad Godfrey and Dick Tang, Sr., Qualify In Gary Golf Tourney

Two Arlington golfers, Brad Godfrey and Dick Tang, Sr., qualified Monday and Tuesday at Gary country club in quest of the trophy in the Great Lakes invitational amateur golf tournament. The two golfers opened man to man competition in a double round of 18 hole matches Wednesday with Tang meeting Frank Ogrin, Jr., Suburban, and Godfrey opposing low qualifier George Victor of Glenview. The latter hit 72-71—143 for low man.

Godfrey notched a 79 Monday and 75 Tuesday for a 154 total. Tang hit 75, then 80 for 155.

Godfrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Godfrey, 307 Carlisle place, Arlington Heights, took fifth in the state high school links tournament, after winning the Jacksonville district meet. He was captain of the golf team this spring at Western military academy.

Last week in the district meet at Inverness, Brad qualified for the finals with a 79, then lost his first match with a 74 against Jerry Thomas of Beloit. The match went 20 holes with Godfrey losing, 1-down.

Both Brad and Tang call Rolling Green country club home. Next on the list for young Godfrey is the tournament at Homewood and then the amateur division of George May's at Tam O'Shanter. Tang, by the way, is father of Dick, Jr., West Suburban conference champ.

Ned Wickersham Tops in Batting In Fastball Loop

Only three games were played in the Northern Illinois fastball league last week due to inclement weather but the second place Oak Park Amvets were involved in a pair, defeating Waukegan, 7-3, and Highland Park, 8-1.

At the same time the league-leading Libertyville Comets scored a close, 2-0, verdict over visiting Waukegan. In all three games, the victorious pitcher turned in a low-hit performance as Libertyville's Warren Boyes held Waukegan to an infield tap in the ninth inning, the only Waukegan hit, while Oak Park's Shelton limited Highland Park to one hit and Les Faust yielded only a pair to Waukegan, both homers by catcher Bernie Schneider. In the Libertyville triumph over Waukegan, pitcher Boyes drove in both of his team's runs with a timely single in the sixth inning.

Oak Park's Augie Jacobs is closing the gap in the individual batting race and the Amvet centerfielder now has a .351 average, second to Palatine's Ned Wickersham who sports a lofty .419.

Tri-City Woman's Golf

The Tri-City Women's Golf League had for its weekly event July 15 at Mount Prospect country club "low putts." Winner on the first nine was Marge Hartman and winner on the second nine was Hazel Burnier.

Flight leaders as of July 15 are as follows:

A Flight (Helen's Beauty Salon), Hazel Burnier, Dorothy Carter.

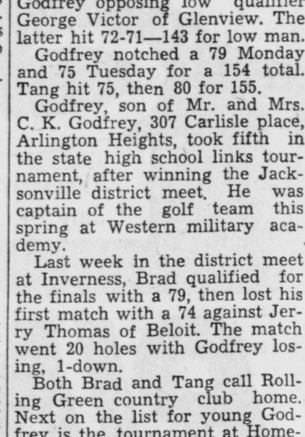

B Flight (Van Driel's Drug Store), Dorothy Vance, Lois Rezner.

C Flight (Mt. Prospect State Bank), Alice Blocksom, Edythe Skelton, Alice Parker.

D Flight (Top Hat Cleaners), Dory Rohner.

E Flight (Mt. Prospect Pastry Shop), Bernie Mehleck.

Hadn't Orter Ought'a Win

— Staff photo

Hadn't Orter, one of the most promising 3 year old handicap horses of Brown Hotel Stable, is being given personal attention of Trainer Wilbur Borton, son-in-law of Fred Glueckert, Arlington Heights. Hadn't Orter is being prepped for the Misty Isle handicap race at Washington Park, August 9, and showed fitness recently at Arlington Park by a surprise victory at odds of 17-1. Borton is the husband of Mary Ellen Glueckert.

Rob Roy Golf

Wulbecker Furniture and L-Nor Cleaners tied for the lead Tuesday night in the Rob Roy league with 47 points apiece.

Park Ridge Stop & Sock defeated the cleaners, 5-2, while the furniture men were taking Whitton Realtors, 6½-½. Smith and Dawson took all points from Dunteman Dairy.

Intravartolo Reports For Backstop Duty At Independence, Kansas

Jim Intravartolo, Arlington Heights high school catching star signed two weeks ago by the St. Louis Browns, flew to Independence, Kan., where he reported Monday for competition. Originally Jim was to wait 'til October to report for a brief workout, then relax until spring training in '53.

Crying need for a catcher for the Class D team changed Intravartolo's plans and he was expected to see action immediately. Independence, by the way, is in the same league as Ada, Okla., where Jim Karrigan of Bensenville has reported for pitching chores. The two should oppose each other shortly.

Mt. Prospect Tops Wheeling

Mt Prospect's south side Little Leaguers avenged a previous loss to Wheeling Sunday afternoon with a neat 6-5 win. The game was played at Lions park in Mt. Prospect.

Hass, Hinkle and Lindstrom led the attack for Mt. Prospect with their fine hitting. Each whacked out a triple with Hass and Lindstrom adding singles.

MOEHLING AND Rudolph both pitched good ball but the extra base hitting of Mt. Prospect in the fifth inning clinched the game.

Each team has now won one game apiece.

Tuesday evening the Wheeling All-Stars traveled to Mt. Prospect to play the rubber game with the Merchants. Mt. Prospect won the first game 9-6 with Wheeling taking the second, 4-1.

Wheeling lost the rubber game 8-5 to Mt. Prospect Merchants.

A double header will be played at the Wheeling school grounds next Sunday at 1:30. Wheeling Lions will play the Amvets and the Amvets will play the Chamber of Commerce.

Dick Hauff Second

Dick Hauff, number two golfer for Arlington Heights high school this past spring, copped second place in the Chicago caddie golf tourney Tuesday at St. Andrews club. Jim King won first in a single hole sudden death playoff after four boys tied for first at the end of regulation 36 holes with 153.

King and Hauff will play for Chicago next month in the national caddie tournament at Columbus. Hauff shot 79 Monday and 74 Tuesday. Oddly enough, any one of the four who tied at 36 holes could have won by parring the last hole.

Redwings Drop 6-1 Contest to Keane Boosters

Three walks and an error put four men on base, accounting for four runs Sunday at Recreation park, Arlington Heights, and the Redwings suffered their first loss along the tournament trial, 6-1. Alderman Keane Boosters were the winners with a triple and a single starting the other two winning scores on their way.

It simply wasn't Bill Stretton's day Sunday. He walked three, committed an error, and allowed six hits including three doubles in the first four innings. The fifth frame was another bad one with Paul Lang relieving Stretton, with one run scoring on a triple and two singles. Thereafter the Boosters were quiet.

GOING INTO the bottom of the second, down three runs, the Redwings looked as if they'd be allowed to make amends. Stang walked and Schiewe was on by virtue of an error. That was the end of it, however, as O'Shaunessy and Nelson were thrown out at first, and Meyer flied out to the same Kruto.

Stretton's single went to no avail in the third, as did Stang's walk in the fourth. In the sixth Meathe walked, went to second on an error, and scored on another miscue.

TWO WALKS in the seventh brought only a strike out, fly and grounder for the Redwings with two more passes in the eighth and another in the ninth also failing to produce. The locals chalked up eight passes but fanned six times. The Boosters were granted six walks and struck out seven times.

This Sunday the Redwings will meet Franklin Park on the local field. Both squads have 2-1 slates to date in tourney play.

Three Former Champs Still Have Chance

Eight golfers, three of them Paddock Publications champions, still have a chance to once again shoot for honors in the newspaper sponsored links tournament Sunday, August 17, in the third annual Inter-League Handicap. Of approximately 93 individuals still rating a chance to be on a first place team in any of the seven local leagues at midnight Friday, August 8, just eight of them have made the grade before.

The tournament, with a huge traveling trophy and 12 medals hanging in the balance, is between first place teams of the two Mount Prospect leagues, Arlington Heights league, Roselle loop, Bensenville VFW league, Rob Roy league and St. James loop. Entries for each league will be selected by league officials, with first place teams as of August 8 declared eligible. In event of ties that night, those same officials will have to make the choice.

TONY FELKER of Arlington Heights and Ed Maha and Vince Carlson of Mount Prospect are the former champs who rate a chance this year. Felker, a fill-in for the Arlington Heights National Bank team which copped honors in 1950, is at present with Jahn's Service station in the Arlington Heights loop. His squad is 5½ points out of first.

Maha was on Hook's Nursery team last year which took the tournament at Mount Prospect country club. This year he's playing with Busse Motors of the Wednesday Mount Prospect league, is in first place by one-and-one-sixth points over Illinois Range.

Carlson is with Van Driel's team in Wednesday Mount Prospect league, two points out of top spot. He was on Hook's Nursery team in 1951.

OTHERS WITH possibility of repeating as entrants include:

Bud McKaig, Lingren's Men's Wear of Arlington Heights league, out of first place by one point.

A. Schaeffer, French Pastry Shop of St. James league, out of first place by nine points.

Art Skelton, Busse Motors of Wednesday Mount Prospect league, in first place by one point.

Virgil Rolfs, L-Nor Cleaners of Rob Roy league, tied for first with Wulbecker Furniture.

W. Oberlander, Illinois Range of Wednesday Mount Prospect league, out of first place by one point.

The trophy and medals, on exhibit this past week at Bensenville Men's Shop, move to Bill's Barber Shop in Roselle Friday, for exhibition before the golfers.

Near-perennial sponsor in the Paddock tournament is L-Nor Cleaners. In 1950 the cleaners had two entries, one from Rob Roy league and one from St. James loop. Last year the team lost out by just one week. This year the squad is tied for first in the Roy Roy league.

Prized colt of Roy Waldron, trainer for Clifford Moore, is Nugget Ned, rated as one of the fastest 2 year olds in the country. Jack Wiese, Arlington Heights, (left), stands by admiring the colt who won his first start at Arlington Park and has been entered in the opening day feature Monday at Washington Park.

"Nugget Ned was not entered in the futurity events here," said Waldron, "because he proved to be an obstinate, unruly colt while undergoing training last winter. It wasn't until after the closing dates for entries that he finally settled down and showed signs of becoming a great runner. He has broken the Arlington track record at seven furlongs while in training."

Waldron has a string of 28 horses at Arlington Park, including Cyclotron who ran second to Two Lea in the $100,000 Hollywood Gold Cup recently.

Arlington Legion Loses and Ties Behrentz, Tops Palatine

Poole's Fords lost a 5-inning game, 5-2, and tied a four-inning encounter, 2-2, against Behrentz post, American Legion team from Chicago.

Errors cost plenty as Arlington committed seven in the nine innings played. It was the locals' poorest played game of the season as Arlington was easily outplayed and outhustled.

Behrentz scored their first three runs on two hits, a base on balls and two misplays. A base on balls led to the fourth and fifth runs Behrentz scored, but errors helped along. Arlington scored its two runs in the first game when Sieburg opened the second inning with a walk. He scored on Thomas' double, Thomas advanced to third on a wild pitch and scored on an infield out.

Dick Sargent hurled for Arlington, allowing four hits and walking three.

BOB SIMMONS hurled the second game and allowed just one hit in the four innings played. He walked five, and struck out six. Both runs scored against Simmons in the first inning when the leadoff man walked. He advanced to third on a sacrifice when nobody covered third. The next man grounded out for the second out. The fourth man up walked, then an easy grounder went through Hesch's legs to give Behrentz two runs.

In the third Verret led off with a walk and scored on Hesch's triple, Bakalar, batting for Ryden, bunted Hesch home on the squeeze play.

MONDAY NIGHT Arlington whipped Palatine in a non-league tilt 6-0. Arlington used four pitchers, with Simmons, Shanklin and Brumm each working two innings and Sargent one. Palatine used two pitchers, Kappler and Hillesheim. Simmons struck out five batters in the two innings he worked. Arlington scored two runs in the first inning, two in the third and two more in the fifth.

Arlington still did not look as impressive as earlier in the season, but did show more hustle and will to win than in a few previous games. This will have to improve much more, however, or Arlington will taste defeat a few more times in the second round.

Palatine Junior Legion Splits

Palatine's Junior Legion baseball team split even in two games with neighboring towns during the past week. The Palatine boys were shut out, 6-0, by Arlington Heights but whipped Mount Prospect, 12-4. The victory was a league game and the defeat a practice affair.

Mt. Prospect got only two safe hits off the slants of Hillesheim, Meyer, and Schrage while Palatine got 11 off Blake and Reed. Mt. Prospect scored three times in the opening frame on two hits and four bases on balls. Tinker Meyer took over the next four innings on the mound and pitched no hit ball, but a base on balls and a hit batter got him in trouble from which Scillfo scored a run. Schrage hurled no hit ball the last two rfames.

PALATINE SEWED up the game in the first inning with six runs on four bases on balls, a single by Ross, and a triple by Schrage. Six more runs came in the sixth on four more bases on balls, a single by Eddie Hartmann, and a double by Meyer. Tom Hillesheim was the only player to get two hits.

Arlington Heights needed only four ihts to beat Palatine, 6-0. Six walks and five errors made the difference. Kappler and Hillesheim pitched for Palatine while Simmons handled mound duties for Arlington. Palatine got only five hits, two of which were by Dick Abrahamson.

To date Palatine's leading hitters are Paul Schrage .444, Kenneth Rehusch .382, and Tinker Meyer .300.

Touting the Bangtails

by T. C. HART

The big and successful Arlington Park racing season, the best from every standpoint for many years, comes to a close Saturday of this week with the running of the fabulous Arlington Handicap —a race for three year olds and upwards at a mile and one eighth for a purse of $150,000. The Arlington handicap is the second race in two weeks for $150,000 purses, the first one being the historic Arlington Classic decided last Saturday and won by Mark-Ye-Well from the famous Calumet stable.

Interest in the big race meeting has been reaching its peak during the last couple of weeks and fine crowds and big mutuel play have been the order of the day. Saturday under most unfavorable weather conditions, over 26,000 fans turned out for the Classic and wagered over $1,800,000. The running of the Arlington Handicap closing day is bound to see another huge crowd and a heavy mutuel play at the track.

DESPITE THE FACT that the Arlington Park meeting this year has been beset with more bad weather than usual the attendance and mutuel handle has far exceeded that of recent years and despite the "off" track conditions that have prevailed much of the time there has been a goodly percentage of winning favorites come down in front.

The races have been so well balanced and evenly handicapped that in many races there would be half a dozen horses which wouldn't be over a point and a half apart on the odds board. That led to spirited action on the part of the fans and also hotly contested races on the track with many a close finish.

THIS IS THE 23rd running of the Arlington Handicap (not run in 1940) . . . inaugurated in 1929 and won by the same horse which won the first running of the Arlington Futurity in 1927—Misstep.

1951 finish: Cochise (Ovie Scurlock, Oil Capitol, County Delight. Oil Capitol, now owned by Masty House Farms and Mrs. Harry Trotsek, and Kokeby Stable's County Delight are eligibles again in 1952.

The Arlington Handicap was run at a mile-and-an-eighth only once before—1929, the inaugural year, when Misstep stepped the distance in 1:50 2/5 and earned $22,075. The Handicap was run at a mile and a sixteenth on the turf in 1941, but has been a mile-and-a-quarter race in all other renewals.

THERE WERE 106 original nominations November 1, 1951; with 87 meeting the second payment February 1, 1952, and 56 remaining eligible with the final payment May 1, 1952. One supplementary nomination at a fee of $7,500 was made July 5, Arthur W. Abbott's Blue Man, top-ranking three-year-old now in training and winner of the Flamingo, Experimental Free Handicap No. 2, Preakness, Yankee Handicap and the Dwyer, third in the Kentucky Derby and second in the Belmont Stakes. Blue Man arrived at Arlington July 16 to open training for the big race.

Blue Man's entry gives the Handicap the nation's top money-winning horse ($259,585), earned on six firsts (five stakes) and a record of running out of the money only once in nine starts this year.

With the great Arlington meeting history the racing scene will shift Monday to Washington Park where the huge coordinated Arlington-Washington program of rich stake events will be continued through Labor day, and race fans will find a lot of those horses which seemed to be just a little short of winning at Arlington will come popping down in front at Washington like trained pigs—they always do.

Mount Prospect Merchants Take 14th Win

The Mount Prospect Merchants won two more ball games to extend their record to 14 won and one lost, July 16 when they defeated Oak Park Sportsmen, 8 to 4 and Sunday, July 20, when they defeated Niles, 10 to 4.

At Oak Park heavy hitters were Kenny Nawl, Bruce Bjorkland and Fred Peterson. Sparkling defensive plays were turned in at third base by Billy Zadelle.

AGAINST NILES hits were spread evenly among the entire team. In the sixth inning Thill relieved Peterson on the mound and struck out 12 batters in a row.

Tuesday evening, July 22, the Merchants met the Wheeling All-Stars at 6:30 at School and Busse to attempt to avenge their lone defeat of the season.

Wednesday, July 23, they played Oak Park at 6:30 p.m.

Sixteen Golf Couples Enjoy Special Play

Arlington Heights twilight golf league held a special event, a two-ball foursome, at Arlington country club Sunday, July 20. A total of 16 couples participated in the gay affair, and everyone agreed it was an afternoon of much enjoyment which should be held again soon.

Chuck Kleinofen and Mrs. Clarence Horcher copped first prizes, determined under the Peoria system of scoring. There were many other prizes, 28 in all, which contributed to the delight of all participants.

Special thanks go to the sponsors of teams in the league who donated prizes and also to Bud Rapp, Bill Poole and Bud McKaig, who also contributed to the prize list.

Regularly scheduled play in the league was again rained-out last Friday, making it the fourth time the rains have come at tee-off time this year. Since the first Friday of league play, there have been 12 Fridays pass. Of these 12, six have been played, with two falling on holidays and four rainouts. This makes for a .500 average, which for a major leaguer would be a record batting average, but for the golf league, is the poorest play-average ever experienced. It would be very gratifying if the weatherman would schedule rains for nights other than Friday for the remainder of the season.

Pick 19 Trotters for Trotting Derby

Sharing top interest of harness racing fans who regularly attend the elaborate program at Sportsman's Park is the trotting derby to be offered at the west side track Friday, July 25.

Nineteen trotters have been declared for the spectacular trotting championship and it is believed one of the largest as well as the best fields will face the starting gate when time to divide the rich purse rolls around.

The complete list of the 18 trotters eligible for the title includes: Joe Donlin, Kaerl Worthy, Buckie B., Jeffrey Hanover, Royal Vickie, Johnny Brown, Marcia D., Pay Up, Delhi Lady, Gene Long, Addie's Boy, Lew Hanover, Clipper Hanover, Clever Sunny, Little Steve, Moses, Shawnee Hanover, Spud Hart and Sidney Guy.

It will be recalled that Demon Hanover, owned by Harrison Hoyt, of Bethel, Conn., captured the Sportsman's Park Trotting Championship in 1951 and in 1950 it was the great Proximity. It will be recalled that during her operation at Sportman's Park that season Proximity set a new all times money earning record which stood until a week or so ago, when the mark was surpassed by the highly reputed Good Time.

Family of Olympic Trainer at Arlington

The family of Bob Peterson, crew trainer in the Olympics, is visiting at the home of F. R. Patton, 1019 E. St. James street, Arlington Heights, while the games are held in Helsinki, Finland. Mrs. Peterson is a sister of Mrs. Patton.

Peterson served under Lynn Waldorf as trainer at Northwestern during the '30s and early '40s, went to Great Lakes where he was football trainer during World War II. When war was over he transferred to Indiana university where he worked with "Bo" McMillin, then moved to the University of California at Berkley. "Pappy" Waldorf later switched allegiance from Northwestern to California.

One of eight trainers with the Olympic squads, Peterson has also been delegated trainer of the cycling team in the absence of the originally appointed trainer. His wife and three children are awaiting his return from Finland in Arlington Heights.

Huge Trophy for Longest Tee-Off

The beautiful 24" trophy for the longest drive from the first tee is slated to be given away at Arlington country club this Sunday, July 27, instead of last, as previously announced in this paper. Any golfer teeing off between 6 a. m. and 4 p. m. Sunday is eligible to compete.

Palatine Motors Rout Chicago, 10-1

Palatine Motors softball team won their 16th victory in 19 starts Sunday evening in Palatine, defeating the Chicago Blue Jays 10-1.

The motormen, who had scored 21 runs in their last three league starts, had trouble with the slow pitching of Larsen. Going into the bottom of the sixth they had just two hits, but in the sixth they drove in seven runs and six hits, the big blows being homeruns by Johnny Majewski and Bob Jungkans.

Don Garlisch pitched for Palatine, giving up just two hits, one of these a homerun. Garlisch was troubled with wildness in the early innings but settled down and pitched a nice game.

The motormen play two games this week end. Friday night they travel to Highland Park and Sunday evening Evanston visits Palatine.

Grid Ticket Sales Booming For Illinois

With season ticket sales running 1,000 ahead of last year's figures and individual game orders booming, pre-season purchases of tickets for University of Illinois home games may reach an all-time high, George A. Legg, Illini ticket manager, predicted.

Currently the Illinois-Purdue homecoming tilt October 25 leads all games in total sales, but the Illini-Washington clash October 11 is drawing unusual attention.

Coach Ray Eliot's team have won two consecutive thrill-packed contests from the Huskies, 20-13 in Memorial stadium in 1950 and 27-20 last year in Seattle. Return of Washington to Champaign this season is proving a topnotch attraction.

FOR GAMES away chief attention has been focused on the crucial Illinois-Wisconsin battle at Madison October 4. Orders for this tilt are among the heaviest in history, exceeded only by last year's Northwestern game which drew thousands of Illini students living in the Chicago area.

Sale of season tickets for Illinois home games with Iowa State September 27, Washington October 11, Purdue October 25, Ohio State November 15, and Northwestern November 22 will close August 15, Legg said. Following that date all mail orders will be filled with expectation that tickets will be placed on sale over-the-counter the first week in September.

Fans do not need special order blanks, Legg pointed out. Tickets may be ordered by letter, but should be accompanied by certified check, bank draft, or money order.

All-Stars Could Have Elephant Backfield, Too

The college all-stars are equipped to counter the Los Angeles Rams' famed Elephant backfield with one of their own. Last year the Rams used three fullbacks in one attacking unit — Paul Younger, Dan Towler, and Dick Hoerner, all plus-200-pounders, with either Bob Waterfield or Norm Van Brocklin at quarter.

The all-stars, who meet the National football league champions in Chicago's Soldiers' field the night of Aug. 15, could use Ollie Matson of the University of San Francisco, High McElhenny of the University of Washington, and Ed Modzelewski of the University of Maryland in support of their T formation quarter back. All three are fullbacks who combine speed with power. They even have a spare for this devastating unit—Bill Reichert, the hard running fullback from the University of Iowa.

The Rams will have to find a replacement in their Elephant backfield for Hoerner, who recently was traded to the Dallas Texans.

Out of town fans should direct ticket requests to All-Star Football Ticket Manager, Tribune Tower, Chicago. Choice seats are available at the following prices: $5.50, $4, $2.75 and $1.50.

Junior Legion Players

Twenty-nine of the fifty major league baseball players on the 1952 all-star team are graduates of the American Legion junior baseball program. The National league had sixteen former Legion players and the American league contained the names of thirteen former Legion stars.

Saxton-Akins Bout at Stadium July 30

Johnny Saxton, the fourth ranking welterweight in the nation, will make his second appearance in Chicago on July 30 when he takes on Virgil Akins, the No. 2 lightweight from St. Louis in a 10 rounder at the delightfully cool Chicago Stadium.

Saxton gave Luther Rawlings a thorough going over in Chicago June 4. In fact Rawlings lost his next fight to Joe Micelli and most experts believe that it was the Saxton fight that took so much out of him that he hasn't yet recuperated sufficiently.

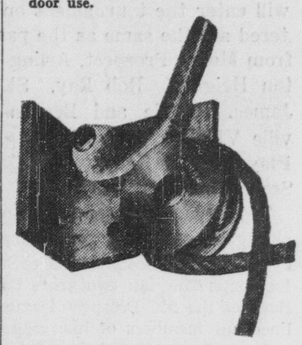

Truman Gibson, secretary of the IBC, said that tickets went on sale Wednesday. The $1 seats will also be placed on sale with the reserved seats.

Vincent Price Opens July 29, 'Goodbye Again'

Screen actor Vincent Price will make his only Chicago area appearance of the 1952 "straw hat" season when he opens Tuesday, July 29, in "Goodbye Again" at Chevy Chase summer theatre.

Price, who has appeared recently in a number of stage, motion picture and television productions, is probably best known for his portrayal of the Dutch patroon in "Dragonwyck."

In "Goodbye Again," Price portrays a travelling lecturer who becomes involved in a love triangle situation.

The Second Man," starring Franchot Tone will have its final performance July 27.

Original hand pumper, belonging to the Palatine fire department, was purchased in 1887 and served until the Palatine water system was installed. Regarded then as extra equipment, it was first sold to Roselle, which in turn sold it to Schaumburg. It is now a collector's item, owned by C. Zepp, Chicago, who keeps it stored in Palatine.

Palatine fire department, which is observing its sixty-fifth anniversary in conjunction with its festival July 31-August 3, had its beginning back in July 1887, when it was known as the Deluge Fire Co. of Palatine.

The constitution and by-laws were formally adopted July 7 of that year. H. C. Matthei, R. M. Putnam and H. A. Swazy served on the constitution and by laws committee, H. W. Harmening was chief of the department and F. G. Robinson, secretary.

The original fire company was formed at the time of the purchase of a hand operated pump, manned by 26 men. A hose cart purchased at the same time used eleven men. Water supply for fighting fires during the first 12 years of the department's existence came from private and underground storage tanks.

Firemen who failed to report at a drill or meeting were fined $1, which meant they lost the remuneration they would otherwise receive from the village, the salary being $1 a month.

ONE OF THE biggest fires the hand pumper had to fight occurred January 18, 1892, when the flax mill, located south of Chicago ave. and west of Greeley st., caught on fire. Night watchman Toppel discovered the fire and sounded the alarm, which was promptly answered by many citizens.

The engine was drawn to the scene of the fire, but part of the building was already too far gone to be saved. Firemen concentrated on other sections of the mill, but they were also doomed, as the fire had gained too much headway, despite the valiant efforts of the fire department and citizens to extinguish the flames.

Intense heat and flying cinders fired the barn of C. Ost, one of the proprietors living a short distance east of the mill, and in a short time it too was consumed, together with a buggy.

Ten years after the establishment of the Deluge Fire Co., a petition was filed with the village board asking for a system of water works. The late C. H. Patten, 117 N. Benton st., fathered the installation of not only the original pump house and water mains, but was the engineer in charge of the greater part of the original water mains laid in the village.

BUILDING OF water mains had progressed so speedily that within five years the village decided to sell its hand pumper. Remembering the service the pumper had given Schaumburg in saving its church when the steeple caught fire, Schaumburg purchased the engine for $500.

Sirens were unknown in those days and each fire fighting equipment had a battery of bells, the jogging of the equipment over the rough roads causing the bells to ring and warn the public to get out of the way.

The sounding of the fire bell was a call to the nearest drayman, or Comfort delivery wagon. Their horses came on the run. The first to arrive received $5 for hauling the engine to the fire. Otherwise the firemen and spectators grabbed hold of the rope hauling the fire fighting equipment. They were so exhausted when they arrived at the fire, volunteers had to man the handles of the pump.

THE PURCHASE of a hand drawn ladder truck came about the time of the water works. Elsewhere in this issue is a picture of this truck, including the men who manned it.

The first chemical engine (also hand operated) was purchased in 1914 from the American La France Fire Engine Co., at a cost of $171.50. Looking through fire department minutes from 1907 to 1932 this reporter found the firemen decided to raise money by subscription to pay part cost of an auto fire truck June 1, 1917. By the end of June $733 had been raised and in August the department decided to buy a Republic 1½ ton truck. However, the minutes didn't reveal the actual date the truck was added to the department's equipment.

In 1923 the firemen gave some consideration to purchasing a truck for rural use. A meeting date was set, but since no farmers attended, the matter was apparently dropped.

TODAY'S EQUIPMENT in the Palatine fire department is a far cry from its meager beginning. It consists of four pieces, one 750 gallon general pumper and one 500 gallon general pumper, with a 750 gallon booster tank, both of which were purchased in 1948. The latter, bought by the department with funds it raised at festivals, also serves the rural area.

The other two trucks are a 1946 Dodge 500 gallon pumper, with reserve water tank, and a 1932 Diamond T, with water tank, both used for rural calls. The latter will be replaced shortly by a Ward LaFrance truck, delivery of which is promised within the next 110 days. It is also being purchased out of festival profits.

Other equipment includes a resuscitator, purchased in 1950 and valued at $800; and a lighting system, consisting of a light generator with 3500-watt flood lights, and smoke fan, which cost $1,000. These were also purchased with festival profits.

THE FIRE station on Slade st. was built in 1942 out of fire department funds and dedicated to the village. The 33x66 foot structure cost the department $8,000, this low price made possible through volunteer labor which helped erect the building. At present the firemen are putting an addition onto this building, which will include a 2-door garage, capable of storing four fire trucks, a store room on the first floor, and a full upstairs, which can be used for firemen's dances or for other community purposes. Cost of this addition is estimated at $35,000, again showing a considerable saving through volunteer labor.

Stop that Speech, Chief! You're 15 Years Older

Paddock Publications' historical department, Way Back When, added fifteen years to the life of the Palatine fire department this week as the men were preparing to hail their golden anniversary in conjunction with this year's festival.

Long after posters and programs were printed telling of fifty years of growth in the department, the Way Back When editor suddenly revealed that the May 7, 1937, issue of the Palatine Enterprise spoke of the golden anniversary observance of the fire department.

Original constitution of the department called for a membership of 45 men though not more than 26 men should be used on the fire engine and not more than 11 on the hose cart. The boys pulled their equipment down the street at that time.

Palatine Woman Locates Brother After Long Search

A search, that started in 1938, ended this summer when Cyril Callahan of Flandreau, S. Dak., located his sister, Mrs. Billie Di Foggio, in Palatine. The two had been separated since they were small children and had never seen each other until a couple of weeks ago.

Callahan knew of his sister from information received from relatives, but had been unable to locate her. Their mother had died when both children were infants and Cyril had been adopted, while his sister was kept by their father. A short time later their father passed away and the girl spent most of her childhood in a school and with an aunt, a sister of her father.

In 1938, Callahan started a search for his sister, but had little information to go on. He recently contacted the aunt that had helped to care for his sister and found that she was living in Chicago. He hit another snag when he placed a call to Chicago and found that Mrs. Di Foggio had moved and the new telephone had not been installed. After explaining the situation to the telephone company officials, they aided Callahan in locating his sister.

Mrs. Di Foggio was surprised to receive the call, although she knew she had a brother and that he had been adopted at the time of her mother's death. She made arrangements to go to Flandreau to meet her brother and was visiting in the Callahan home last week.

Mr. Callahan also found that his original family name was Martinson after meeting his newly found sister.

Mrs. Di Foggio lives at 145 S. Quintens rd., Palatine, in the new Orchard Hills development. The Callahans are expected to visit in Palatine sometime shortly.

'Bumper Crop' of Cars Pile Up in 3 Accidents

Eleven cars bumped into each other in three accidents this week end which resulted in few injuries, but opinions as to what happened were numerous.

Four cars piled into each other Saturday at routes 53 and 62 when the cars driven by Joseph D. Nangini, 38, a businessman of 1322 S. Myrtle, Chicago, was stopped. Nangini claims he stopped because there was a line of cars stopped for an accident.

Nangini told Cook county highway police that Walter T. Markusky, 30, of 5328 S. Oak ave. hit him in the rear. Markusky, however, claims that he came over the rise and stopped behind Nangini when the car in back of him driven by Robert G. Stephanic, 42, of 4514 N. Ashland, smashed into him causing him to hit Nangini.

STEPHANIC SAYS he was going slow when the car in his rear driven by Harold S. Murray, 39, of 706 Division st., Lockport, Ind., mayor, hit him causing him to hit the car in the front.

But Murray says he came over the rise after these cars had all collided and skidded on the wet pavement into Stephanic.

Three other cars collided at the same location when their attention was diverted by the above accident, according to state police. There were no injuries Saturday when four cars collided at route 83 south of Oakton st. Those driving were Chester T. Setlak, 39, of Mundelein, Richard A. Hadland 34, 802 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, Michael Topovich, 37, of 2224 S. Kedvale, and George R. Krueger, 28, 19450 Wolf rd.

INJURED TREATED by Dr. Fitch in Arlington Heights were Richard Hadland, Peter Hensel, 35, and Harriet Topovich.

Setlak says he was stopped for the light when hit by Hadland. Hadland says he was standing still when Topovich hit him causing him to hit Setlak.

Topovich claims that the car in his rear driven by Krueger hit him causing the rest of the cars to collide. Krueger said the cars had already hit each other before he came.

Gems of Thought

PATIENCE

Charity is quite as rare as wisdom, but when charity does appear, it is known by its patience and endurance.

—Mary Baker Eddy

To know how to wait is the great secret of success.

—Joseph DeMaistre

Patience is power; with time and patience the mulberry leaf becomes silk.

—Chinese Proverb

Patience is not passive; on the contrary it is active; it is concentrated strength.

Milk driver dies

Chris Tegtow, 53, of Elmwood Park, a truck driver for the Lake Shore Dairy company, died of a heart attack Friday at 9:45 a. m. while picking up milk at the Elmer Linneweh farm on Schaumburg rd. He began feeling ill after he had loaded cans on the truck and told the farmer he would like to rest awhile before continuing along his route. When his condition became worse, he was persuaded by Linneweh and Ernest Redeker, a nearby farmer who had stopped by to see Linneweh, to lie down and rest in the Linneweh house while a doctor was called. Tegtow suffered the fatal attack just minutes before Dr. Carr of Arlington Heights arrived. Tegtow was well-known in this area, since he serviced many farms here and had numerous friends on the route. Many of the shippers attended funeral services which were held Monday afternoon in Chicago.

Congressional Economy Fails to Materialize, Costs Illinois a Billion

Illinois taxpayers will eventually pay about $986,790,000 as their share of the $12,700,000,000 deficit resulting from the failure of the President and Congress to cut Federal spending for 1953 to the limits of expected Federal income. The Illinois state chamber of commerce released this estimate after adding the score of congressional action on money bills. It is estimated Illinois pays 7.77% of all Federal taxes.

The state chamber figured the federal government will spend a total of $81,000,000,000 next year, which is $4,500,000,000 less than the President proposed to spend in the budget he submitted in January. With 1953 revenues expected in recent congressional estimate to run about $68,300,000,000, the deficit anticipated would be $12,700,000,000.

Although congress cut a total of $8,400,000,000 from the president's appropriation request of $88,657,000,000, this action will have only a limited effect upon federal expenditures in 1953 because some of the money would not have been paid out anyway until 1953 or later, the chamber said.

New Method of Federal Road Aid Asked

A major shift in the American automobile association's policy on federal aid to highways was made at a recent meeting of the organization's highway committee, Charles M. Hayes president of the Chicago Motor club said.

Hayes said that the group recommends that as long as the government persists in taxing motorists, the amount of federal aid funds should be equivalent to the sum collected in federal gasoline taxes.

Never before, Hayes pointed out, has the motorists' organization made any recommendations as to the specific amount of federal aid that should be granted for use on highways. It has taken the view that congress should decide what highway needs were.

THE CLUB OFFICIAL said the federal government collected more than 25 million dollars in federal gasoline taxes in Illinois last year. The figure, he estimated, will leap to between 40 and 45 million dollars next year.

In addition to the policy change, the committee is developing a new formula for the distribution of federal aid highway funds on the grounds that the present method is obsolete. At present, distribution is based on area, population, and miles of roads in a state.

Plyron Panels Used To Improve Home

A new building panel known as Plyron has various applications in the home. It combines the backbone of plywood and the smooth, tough surface of tempered hardboard.

The hardboard, made by compressing wood fibers into a thin, hard sheet of uniform density and smoothness, gives Plyron its tough, wear-resistant, easily-paintable surface. The new panel has a core of plywood, which makes it puncture-proof, strong, rigid and dimensionally stable.

The combination panel is split-proof and relatively light weight. It is permanently bonded with moisture-resistant glues.

Already in use commercially as cabinet doors in kitchen cabinets, fixture shelving and surfaces, store partitions, industrial table and bench tops and other ways, Plyron has some interesting and versatile applications in the home.

For example, it is excellent for bookshelves, coffee tables, occasional tables and various working surfaces. For built-ins, partitions, pass-throughs and dividers, Plyron is an ideal material.

The new building panel may be obtained at most lumber yards.

Baroque; fantastic; grotesque (Pronounce ba-rok, a unstressed, o as in no, accent second syllable). "Baroque sculpturing ornamented the facade of the building."

Elusive; hard to grasp or keep (Pronounce the u as in use, not as in rude). "Memories can sometimes be very elusive."

Summer Tips on Flower Care

CLEAN SCRUB DOWN. Washing with soap and water is one way lovely Laraine Day keeps flowers bright and shiny during the hot dusty months of summer. But this is only one of six important beauty tips for summer boquets, reminds Alyn Wayne, chief stylist of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association. Here are five other hints for summer arrangements from the styling expert for the 9,500 florists who fill the nation's orders for flowers-by-wire:

(1) Unpack flowers as soon as they come from the florist; (2) Recut stems with a sharp knife; (3) "Harden" in a deep bucket of cool water two or three hours; (4) Add water daily; (5) Recut stems when flowers seem to tire.

DeKalb to Use Home at Lowden Park

Northern Illinois state teachers college has obtained permission from the state department of public works and buildings to use the Wallace Heckman residence at Lowden state park near Oregon.

The teachers' college has exclusive use of the building until July 1, 1953, for instructional purposes in connection with its proposed plans for holding classes and conferences on the Lorado Taft field campus which is adjacent to Lowden park. It has also been indicated that the college may use it after July 1, 1953, subject to future negotiations on the matter.

About your health

There are approximately one thousand miles of blood vessels in the average human body. These vessels vary in size from about one and one-half to two in. in circumference to a size so small that they would transmit only one blood cell at a time.

Normally the inner lining of the blood vessel wall is constructed of tough, elastic, smooth glistening tissue which permits the blood to flow easily with the least frictional resistance. Immediately beneath this inner lining there is a layer of firm connective tissue which links the inner lining to the underlying muscular coat. The purpose of the muscular coat is to alter the size of the tube, which is callled the luminal opening.

THE ENTIRE system with the heart is called the circulatory or cardiovascular system, and is responsible for transporting blood cells with oxygen and blood plasma containing food substances to all parts of the body. It also returns the waste products in the body to the organs of excretion.

The large vessels, the arteries, carry blood away from the heart to the various sections of the body. The very smallest of the blood vessels, known as capillaries, are microscopic in size. They unite to form veins which, in the process of circulation, return the blood to the heart.

THE PARTS of the circulatory system which supply the extremities of the body are known as the peripheral blood vessels. Two of the most common diseases involving the peripheral blood vessels are Buerger's disease and arteriosclerosis. In Buerger's disease there is an inflammation within the lining of the blood vessel wall which produces a thickening and a resultant narrowing of the luminal opening. In a diseased blood vessel, a deposit of a fatty substance, known as cholesterol, will be evident in the inner lining layer and the layer immediately beneath it. This is the abnormal deposition which occurs in the condition known as arteriosclerosis or hardening of the arteries.

Both conditions then produce not only a narrowing of the luminal opening, but also a loss of elasticity of these blood vessel walls. Thus the blood flow is not even and smooth as it should be, but more or less impeded and even obstructed. In addition to impairing the blood flow, the deposits and infections responsible for the narrowing of the blood vessels can produce such a pronounced narrowing that blood clots can be formed within the artery itself which ultimately may lead to the development of gangrene.

Tubs For Dwarf Trees

Gardeners experienced in growing dwarf fruit trees indoors often plant the trees in galvanized steel tubs filled with earth. The sides of the steel tubs restrict root growth, keeping the trees small. Planted this way, the trees may be easily moved at regular intervals to give them the full benefit of available sunshine.

Tioga VFW Auxiliary

Last week no news from the gals, so no column.

This week not much more, but a few things of interest have taken place and a few reminders.

Arlene Kollath Hackmeister and hubby returned from Missouri for a few weeks. It seems to have been at an opportune time for her to help at the Itasca State bank where she was employed before her marriage, for a few weeks, and to attend a dinner party with her mother, Agnes, and sister, Barbara, at the home of Agnes' sister, Mrs. Arthur Hellem, of Chicago. Also Agnes had a guest from Wisconsin for a week. You have been a pretty busy gal, Agnes, and so has your reporter.

Monday evening I was at the home of Litz Leider to play bridge. A very delightful time was had and climaxed with a non-fattening dessert of ice cream, strawberries and whipped cream. Also present were Mrs. Ralph Laho and Mrs. Sam Ciesinski. Tuesday I went to the loop just to browse around, no shopping though; I spent my money at Eleanor Reid's July Clearance Sale, hope you got some good buys too.

Meeting Thursday night will determine how many and just who will go to the National Encampment of the VFW at Los Angeles the first of August.

Fifth district meeting will be held Sunday, July 27, at 3 p. m. at McHenry, Ill., at the Bridge, located on Rte. 120, one-half block west of the VFW Home, so let's try to be there. If you didn't receive or read your card and you have a change of address, please notify Fran Lichtenberger 644-J or Marion Buckholz 1306.

Vacation Hi-lites: Fran and Fred have been spending their vacation playing golf and just taking it easy. Kay Werhane and family just returned home from their vacation; hope they all had a nice time.

Several names were omitted from the workers of Poppy Day and Salvation Army Doughnut Day so we are very sorry they were omitted. The following, Ann Hoskins for Poppy Day and Marie Arnolde and Di Van Mol for Salvation Army Doughnut Day. So sorry girls, but you know your help was appreciated, so thanks again.

Stork Calls: That long awaited event of Pearl and Bill's has arrived, a baby girl born Tuesday morning. Congratulations Pearl and Bill.

Hazel Schmidt.

Bensenville Home Festival Sunday; Plan New Building

The children and aged of the Bensenville Home are preparing to greet the thousands of visitors who come from near and far to celebrate with them their annual festival and homecoming, to be held Sunday, July 27.

SPECIAL GROUND-BREAKING ceremonies for the new home for aged will take place during the afternoon program, and other attractions planned for festival guests include a dart-ball tournament, band concert, and the ascension of thousands of balloons.

Co-chairmen of the festival are William J. Katzberg, Glen Ellyn, and Elmer Tiedemann, Elmhurst, members of the Board of Directors. Many persons in this area will join the hundreds of volunteer workers at the festival to make the occasion a pleasant, successful one for the many youngsters and old folks cared for by the institution.

IN THE SHADE of the huge oak trees on the campus, religious services will be held at 11 a. m. The Rev. Louis G. Weber, Pastor of St. Paul's church, Hinckley, will speak, and special music will be furnished by the Rev. and Mrs. Karl E. Gaertner of St. Paul's church, Bloomingdale.

The Rev. Albert G. Kautz, pastor of Immanuel church, Bensenville, will serve as liturgist. Cora Warnecke, Bensenville, Peace church organist, will be the accompanist. Ushers will be officers of the Immanuel, Peace and St. John's consistories, and include Alfred Landmeier, Arlington Hts.; E. F. Schoppe, Henry Helfers, Clarence Yarke, Lawrence Kolze, Wayne Scheppele, Bensenville; and Willard Webster, Elmhurst.

Hot dinners will be served from 11:30 a. m. to 2 p. m. in the Children's Dining room and gymnasium. While their dining room is in use, the children of the Home will be served sandwiches and cake in their dormitories by the Peace Women's guild, Bensenville. Mrs. A. V. Marxen, Bensenville, is president of the group, and Mrs. William Baumgartner, Bensenville, has charge of the children's lunches.

COLORFULLY decorated booths have been installed along the campus walks, and from them throughout the day will be sold coffee, pop, hamburgers, hot dogs, candy and ice cream.

The hamburger stand will be managed by the Arlington Hts. Regional Churchmen's Brotherhood, whose oficers include Harold Schroeder, 217 N. Bothwell, Palatine; Harold Moltzen, Marengo; Robert Miller, 328 Washington, Barrington and Edwin Buenzow, 210 N. Fremont, Palatine. Novelties will be sold from a stand supervised by Alvin Munsterman, Jr., Bensenville.

Fancy work and articles made by the children and aged will be on sale at a booth, sponsored by the Ladies Service Committee. Mrs. Linda Liepitz, Itasca, Mrs. Herman Magers and Mrs. Victor Barth of Bensenville, are members of this organization. Pony rides will amuse the children.

THE REV. GLENN G. Gumm, pastor of St. Paul's church, Palatine, and president of the Home board of directors, will be in charge of the ground-breaking ceremony at 3 p. m.

Speaker at this special service will be Dr. Gerhard W. Grauer, pastor of St. Paul's church, Chicago, and president of the Chusch Federation of Greater Chicago. Music will be furnished by the choirs of the Chicago South Side Evangelical and Reformed churches, under the direction of the of Trinity church, Chicago.

During the ground-breaking ceremony for the new unit for aged, the first spadeful of earth will be turned by the festival chairman, Mr. Katzberg, who will then give the spade to Mrs. Katzberg. The Katzberg's have had a deep interest in the Home over a long period of years.

Board members, oficers of the Men's and Women's auxiliaries and Ladies Service committee, sustaining organizations of the Home, will also participate in the ground-breaking.

SUPERINTENDENT OF the Bensenville Home, Rev. Alvin J. Munsterman, will break the ground in behalf of all the men who have served as superintendent of the institution since it was established in 1895. Representing the aged of the churches in the ceremony will be three residents of the Aged division who in 1895 attended the dedication of the present Old People's Home, where they now reside. The new home will provide for 42 aged residents.

Twelve beds will serve bedfast residents, with 30 for room-fast and those able to care for themselves. The new one-story structure will be located in the grove, south of the present old people's home. A tunnel will connect the new home with the old, which will continue to care for 35 aged.

The construction of the new aged unit is in accordance with the Home's modern plan of decentralization of services for the aged, which provides for the establishment of licensed nursing homes for old people in various strategic areas instead of one large institution at Bensenville. An aged unit was recently opened at Freeport, and property has been purchased for a new unit at Peotone, where ground-breaking is expected to take place in the Fall.

THE CHILDREN'S program is always entertaining and colorful. At 4:30 p. m. they will present a special adaptation of "Alice In Wonderland," by Lewis Carroll. On the huge outdoor stage of the campus such well-known characters as the Mad Hatter, the Queen of Hearts, the Mock Turtle and many others will be portrayed by the boys and girls of the institution. Marin E. DeBeoer, Administrator of the Home, will direct the presentation.

The Bensenville Municipal band under the baton of bandmaster Lynn Huffman will give a concert at 5:30 p. m. A long distance balloon race at 6:30 p. m. will conclude the day's program. To each balloon released is attached a mailing card on which is entered the name of a child or old person cared for by the Home. The finder of the balloon is requested to fill in the card and mail it to Bensenville, and prizes are then awarded to the child or aged person whose balloons have traveled the farthest. This is a colorful spectacle that afords the children much merriment and wonder as they await the return of the cards.

MRS. KATHRYN Gilliam is director of social service at the Home. She will be available for conference on festival day. Other staff members from Bensenville who will assist in festival activities are Mrs. Edward Schultz, Mrs. Erwin Knaack and Mrs. Fred Braun. Louis H. Goebel, Itasca, is the Home attorney,, and Dr. H. R. Bowman, Itasca, is their senior physician.

Enoch D. Karry

Enoch D. Karry of Wheeling died Sunday afternoon, July 20, as the result of coronary thrombosis. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the John C. May Funeral Home, Chicago. Rev. William O. McGill officiated. Interment, Montrose cemetery.

Mr. Karry and his wife came to Wheeling nine months ago from Stockton, Cal., and had been living with their son, William E. Karry, awaiting the completion of the new home on which Mr. Karry was working at the time of his death.

Mr. Karry was a member of the First Presbyterian church in Stockton and had been a member of the Community Presbyterian church, Wheeling.

He leaves his wife, Margaret; his son, William E. Karry of Wheeling; a sister, Bertha Karry of Stockton, and three grandchildren, William, Kathleen and James Karry.

Robert E. Mueseler

Robert E. Mueseler, 71, late of Northwest hwy., Palatine, died July 17. Funeral services were held July 20 from his home. Rev. Hilmar Th. Rosenberg officiated. Interment Randhill.

Mr. Mueseler was born June 6, 1881, in Watertown, Minn. A retired blacksmith, he had lived in Palatine for 34 years.

He leaves the following sisters and brothers, Anna Baumel, Godfrey, Ernest, Alma, Olga and Clara Livezey.

Clifford Zugg

Clifford Zugg, 44, former manager of the Palatine A&P, died in the Veterans' hospital at Sioux Falls, S. Dak., July 15 after an illness of three months.

He leaves his sister, Mrs. Edward Neagle of Palatine.

NOW! your home can be Beautiful

BED ACROSS THE CORNER?

Never! To do this breaks up the floor plan and adds confusion to room's composition, and wastes space — both in the corner and at the head and foot of the bed. Besides a bed in this position is always a chore to make. Your bedroom will appear more charming and spacious if you . . .

STREAMLINE YOUR ARRANGEMENT

Like fitting the bed into corner (if room is extremely small) —or if twin beds are used, you might arrange them along against adjacent walls and complete arrangement with corner cabinet or table. Use top area for lamp, books, small radio. Such a plan leaves space for storage chests, dressers, desk or bookcases.

Bedrooms are the most personalized rooms in the home and, as such, deserve special decorative consideration. Our trained decorators will be most happy to help you plan your personalized bedroom. So come in . . . anytime.

We have a complete line of bedroom furnishings. Rustic types suitable for boy's rooms. Maple pieces for Early American decor. Rich traditional mahogany pieces, and new sleek modern furnishings. Single beds complete with mattresses and springs.

Consider the pleasure and convenience of having a small writing desk for letter writing and study in the privacy of your own room. We have a wide assortment of small-scaled desks in various styles, suitable for bedroom pieces. See them today.

It is always our pleasure to have you come in and browse around—let us help you select pieces that are just right for your needs. Lovely decorator-type furnishings that will add to the charm of your home.

"Tales of the Street"—Can you beat it? An Arlington Heights citizen claims that since paved streets were put in that town there are fewer flies. We can believe that there are less mosquitoes in Heights than in Palatine, but it is going a little too far when they claim they have less flies. Who do they think they are anyhow? Palatine has been without saloons ever since the prohibitions law went into effect. We have not had any blind pigs and we do not want them. Rumors are current that liquor is now being sold in Palatine. Our neighbors to the East may have blind pigs besides paved street, but we do not want them with or without the streets.

New Ideas In Homes

THE COWES, in most cases, can be placed on a lot only 30 feet wide. There is a full basement and the first floor consists of living room, kitchen-dinette, bath, three bedrooms and seven closets.

Kitchen cabinets and equipment are compactly arranged in one end of the kitchen with the sink under the side windows.

Wardrobe closets in this small house are used in the bedrooms and kitchen, linen cabinet in the bathroom and closets in the living room and hall.

Plans call for frame construction, wide siding, asphalt shingles, on a hip roof, recessed tub, flower box and wrought iron railing.

Overall dimensions equal 22 feet by 46 feet. Total floor area totals 987 square feet while the cubage amounts to 19,180 cubic feet.

For further information about THE COWES, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

Sticks With Ike

It seems Tom Hart, the sage of Palatine, is crying about the Republican choice for presidential candidate. I don't remember but I'd like to know how he felt about "Glamorous Dan" and if he ever ate sunflowers. At any rate, here are some of my feelings in support of the man picked by the majority at the G. O. P. convention.

"Lacks experience in political affairs." That very lack will be refreshing. After 20 years practically all political activity carries some stigma. He has no dynasty to perpetuate, and no political enemies to eleminate.

"He will be completely dominated by the men who backed his candidacy." Twenty-two of the 25 Republican governors were for Eisenhower (Illinois has a Democrat governor) and they represent widely divergent views on governmental policies. The candidate is free to listen to all and choose his course.

"He has been too closely allied to the Democrats in the past 20 years." He was in the army, in high ranks. He was serving his country, not in policy making, but in doing. He is human, and he made errors, even as you and I. A Democrat president and a Democrat congress made the policies and he was a soldier, carrying out his orders.

"He is a military man and will lead us into war." Any misguided or excessive pressure from the pentagon could put us into a major war. One who is experienced in military affairs and intimately acquainted in the pentagon is best qualified to judge those pressures and protect the civil government from military domination.

"His backers are not real Republicans." Maybe not, but they are the major office holders under the Republican banner in about half the states. Those states have and can be counted on to vote Republican. Our own present record in Illinois doesn't speak too well for us, for even with the questionable help of the Chicago Tribune, we haven't been able to produce. Are we the true defenders of the faith? Are we the pure and undefiled? California has a Republican governor and two Republican senators. We could point to many other facts that refute our claims of superior Republicanism. Illinois, Indiana and Ohio have Democrat governors. Midwest superiority?

"He cannot attract the necessary votes to win." Much as we dislike it, the country has voted predominantly Democratic for the past 20 years. If we hope to win in the November election, we must have, and we do have a candidate who is acceptable to a large number of people who in the past have been voting the Democratic ticket.

"The candidate, if elected, does not have sufficient knowledge of domestic and foreign affairs." As to domestic problems, he has at least as much information as the average American. He should from that point of view be able to examine domestic problems impartially and judge fairly. From a military point of view he is as well informed as any American, and he does have the valuable experience of dealing with problems at first hand in Europe. That he has not also served elsewhere may be regrettable — but there is no living American who has served in all areas.

Thirsty Republican,
Arlington Heights.

TALES of the STREET

—T. C. HART

● RAIN—MORE RAIN

The heavy downpours of the last few weeks have done untold damage to the crops of the farmers and truck growers.

Over two weeks ago we were in some wonderful fields of grain and corn, the wheat looked about ready to harvest and the oats were beginning to ripen. The corn at that time was shoulder high and with a healthy deep green color that presaged a bumper crop.

The corn was also almost completely free of corn borers and farmers were hoping for a gentle shower to help ripen the wheat and put a little more moisture into the ground for the corn. The showers came all right but they weren't satisfied to be just gentle showers. Some of them turned into near cloudbursts and the continued heavy rains have delayed farm operations a whole lot. Some farmers started to harvest the wheat, but tests showed a moisture content of 17% when not over 13% should be present when the wheat is put in the bin.

What looked like an early harvest season has been badly delayed and the weeds are coming up in the grain fields at top speed, making the harvesting operations more difficult when the boys finally do get at it.

Haying operations have also been seriously hampered and the fellows on the farms are ready to have it dry off and stay dry for a while so that they can get things done.

The truck growers are also feeling the effects of the rainy season. One grower with over 30,000 tomato plants in his field said that after one big rain, plants had been twisted half out of the ground. Those big tomato fields by the way are looking wonderful and it looks like a big crop and an early one. Some scattering ripe tomatoes are already being picked.

● THE KILLDEER

The killdeer, which make their summer home about the park and school grounds, are back again and are acting like they owned the premises more than ever. The son of the school janitor was mowing the grass recently and the birds got so excited about the machine getting close to their nests that they dive-bombed the machine operator so viciously that he left that area alone.

It is said that there is also an area in the park where the birds put up such a battle that the grass is left uncut in respect to their ferocious actions.

The daisies, too, which grew in profusion long before schools and parks were ever heard of also try to maintain a foothold on their old homeland. Despite the frequent grass cutting these daisies keep coming up at any spot that is missed by the mower and bravely bloom in spite of adversity.

The killdeer and the daisies may be like the Republican party, a vanishing race but they persist as long as possible in putting up a battle against the forces of disaster as represented by the changing times.

● MOSQUITOES

Hand in hand with the rainy, muggy weather go the mosquitoes and they sure have been pesky these last several weeks. Try to do a little work in the garden or to harvest a few vegetables for the table and the blame things will pretty near carry a person away.

Mosquito dope, which has seemed to be fairly effective in other seasons, doesn't seem to bother the 1952 crop. A person can take a bath in the stuff, but the mosquitoes still come in gleeful buzzing armies; they are sure making outdoor life miserable this summer.

● IMPROVING

Is prairie and sand lot baseball coming back into favor or have people grown tired of watching television now that the newness of the thing has worn off?

Whatever it is the crowds at prairie and small town ball games this summer are better than for some years past. The Arlington Heights Red Wings are once more drawing some good crowds and they are playing some fine baseball. The Red Wings this season are back in the midwest league and the caliber of baseball in that league is better than in the average to which they belonged for several seasons.

At Community park in Palatine, where the Palatine Motors play soft ball every Sunday night, it's pretty much the same story. Crowds have been better and some sparkling exhibitions have been staged.

● REACTIONS

Here are a few reactions to the Republican convention. Six Republicans were gathered at the morning coffee hour at the Village Inn in Palatine. All were disgusted with the convention, five of them announced that they would vote for the Democratic candidate if he was any good at all and one was going to pass and not vote for president.

At Arlington Park a couple of stable hands were sitting on a bench in the paddock. "What do you think of the convention?" asked one. "I don't think Eisenhower is any man for labor," replied his friend. "He hasn't shown any signs that he understands the problems of labor or the farmers."

A couple of well dressed gentlemen were walking across the paddock and were hailed by some friends sitting on a bench. "Lend me a grand will you? I went broke at the convention," said one of the men as he approached his friends.

In the betting ring, before things got busy, a group of mutuel clerks were expressing their displeasure at the selection of Eisenhower. All afternoon, wherever more than two people gathered in a group, one could catch the expressions of disgust and displeasure at the work of the convention.

"What do you think of Eisenhower?" a veteran was asked at a ball game. The vet promptly pulled up his pants leg and showed a wound from which ever so often shrapnel was still being removed.

"What do I think of Eisenhower?" he repeated. "We've got enough military men in the pentagon without having one in the white house. I don't want to see every boy and girl in the country in uniform and I'll never vote for Eisenhower."

And so it goes, from every section of the country comes pretty much the same reaction to the antics of that Republican convention. Loyal old time Republicans are disillusioned, disheartened and disgusted. The Democratic party has the chance of a lifetime to break the G.O.P. wide open.

● MAGNOLIAS

Elmer Walter of Palatine has a magnolia tree that is starting to bloom all over again. Elmer says that several blooms were open over a week ago and that more are coming along.

The tree bloomed early in the spring when it was seasonable for magnolias, but what has started it up again at this season of the year has Elmer guessing. He says you can hardly see the blossoms because of the heavy growth of leaves, but they are there. Maybe all this rain and hot weather has made the magnolia tree feel that it was in its natural tropical habitat and that it shows its appreciation of the climate by blooming again.

American Engineer Would Have Field Day In England Straightening Winding Roads

by HESTER KLINE

Nine days touring England and Scotland only whetted my appetite to see more. An American might expect to thoroughly cover such a small territory in that length of time, but fast travel is not the rule in England.

There are several reasons. Roads are narrow by our standards, but all are smooth, hard surface. Leslie, the driver of our luxury coach, which was only three seats wide instead of four as are our American buses, often had a hard time on the sharp curves or when he encountered another large vehicle.

THE BRITISH Isles are hilly, and the roads follow the contour. They apparently follow ancient paths and lanes, because they meander between houses and fields. An American road builder would really have a time for himself condemning property and cutting a straight swath through the countryside, albeit at the cost of losing the scenery.

We would condemn many of the houses which are still occupied, too. Old Tudor houses literally bulge at the seams. In Lincoln we saw a house built in the 11th century which is still occupied.

The tempo of traffic is slowed by the cyclists, the two wheeled horse carts, the stock being driven down the road.

The English do not seem to fret about the leisurely pace of their life. Perhaps the frequent evidences of the Roman occupation of 2000 years ago, of the Norman invasion 900 years ago, gives them the assurance that England has been there a long time and will be there for a long time to come.

WITH DEEP reverence we entered Lincoln cathedral, the first of the ancient places of worship on our tour. This mystical sense was renewed at each cathedral, each abbey, we visited. Our thoughts were of the devotion of the religious men who caused this place of worship to be built, of the pages of history written there.

Lincoln is built of yellow stone, Carlisle of rose colored, Wells of grey, but the plan of the monastery churches is always the same. They form a cross, with the nave at the west end, and the Lady chapel at the east, the most holy, end. The transepts form the cross arms. The stained glass, some of it dating back to the 14th century, was all removed during the war, and in some places has not been completely restored.

A special privilege was accorded us at Lincoln, where the virger took our party into the special room where one of the four original copies of Marga Charta is kept in an air conditioned vault and allowed us to view it.

THE WOOD carvers and sculptors had a delightful sense of humor, (or was it venom?) The general effect of the carvings in either wood or stone is lacy and delicate, but close inspection reveals the amusing figures of animals and people in all sorts of predicaments.

The cathedrals have withstood the vissitudes of time, but with the dissolution of the monasteries by Henry VIII many of the abbeys fell into ruins. "Peace" gives a one word picture of an abbey. The grass, where once were stone floors, seems greener than elsewhere. The sky is the roof. No stained glass window could be more inspiring than the view through an open arch.

In York we wandered through the "Shambles," these shop-lined streets so narrow the overhanging upper stories of the buildings nearly met. There was barely room for one car, a small English car, if pedestrians on the narrow sidewalks pressed close to the walls.

CHESTER IS another town with quaint shops. There they are called the "Rows," and on the roofs of the ground floor stores is a walk and a second row of shops. The center of Chester is surrounded by a Roman wall still intact, on the top of which is a promenade where the Roman soldiers used to keep guard.

Big industrial cities are big industrial cities the world over, so I will quickly dispose of Newcastle, Glasgow and Liverpool.

Princess Street, Edinburgh, is famed for its shops. Overseas visitors are catered to, and they are allowed to buy many things unavailable to the English people. But even in the export shops the selection was poor compared to stores here at home, and I felt prices were not low enough to justify the effort of shopping, which I don't particularly enjoy anyway. I was always conscious of that 44 pound restriction on my luggage. Even with this lack of enthusiasm, I bought enough to be somewhat overweight, and got off the plane in Chicago looking like an immigrant, carrying parcels of china, coats, and a fair sized handbag.

THROUGH THE beautiful Trossachs of Scotland we encountered "Scotch mist." Clouds obscured the tops of the bens (mountain peaks,) and the lochs were grey in the rain. It rained so hard we couldn't take the steamer down Loch Lomond as planned.

In the English lake district we had perfect weather. The houses here are built of green slate. It was plain to see that Wordsworth and the other English poets would find inspiration in this lovely area.

We went through the state rooms at Warwick Castle, and found them furnished as we thought a castle should be. The art treasures were magnificent. The furniture was massive. But it wasn't very homey.

During the third portion of my trip, I enjoyed the intimate home life of ordinary English people.

(To be concluded)

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

I was so delighted to have mother here on her birthday. She had planned to go home last Monday, but I managed to keep her here one more week, by planning to have Bridget's christening on Saturday. You see, I'm going to miss my favorite companion and helper very much when she is no longer here to have quiet, little early-morning-coffee chats with, or to walk downtown in the afternoon with Megan and Bridget and me to have an ice cream soda, or to take Megan to the beach, when I'm tired, so that I can nap for awhile. Yes, although I'll be twice as busy, I'm afraid the first few days that mother is gone will be a little lonesome.

But, let me tell you what fun we had on her birthday. Mother had never been to "Little Traveler" before so, since I am so fond of this little place and knew mother would be, I suggested that we all go there for lunch and browsing. Mother, always agreeable to any of my whims (but never knowing quite what to expect), said that she would love to.

THE MORNING air was hot and humid so I simply dressed Bridget in her batiste, sleeping jacket and white, eyelet bonnet (and, of course, that other necessary little garment!) and Megan in a starched, white pinafore. After gathering together several "changes" for Bridget, her water bottle, a pillow, a couple of coverlets, sweaters, "life-savers" and crackers for Megan and other odd and sundry items, we climbed into mother's car and started for Geneva, Ill.

We arrived at "Little Traveler" around eleven o'clock and decided that since Bridget was sleeping soundly we would go in and have lunch first. Although we had to take turns leaving the table and going out to check on Bridget, we enjoyed our lunch in the snack shop and Megan adored sitting in the antique, barrel-back, junior chair.

WHEN BRIDGET woke up, I brought her inside and carried her as we went from one charming room to another. Although I have visited, a number of times, this lovely old house with its many more recently added rooms, containing almost anything one would want to buy, there is always something new to see. I especially enjoy the attractive flower arrangements in which nothing but common field flowers and weeds are used. Each piece—so artfully done in the choice of color and arrangement of flowers—fits perfectly into its setting, whether it be a beautifully laid table or a display of gleaming, old copper and brass.

Christmas cards and wrapping paper of most unusual design are already much in evidence and in the room containing note paper, assorted greeting cards, place cards, paper napkins, etc., one is able to find anything to suit his own individual taste.

WHAT EXQUISITE hand made dresses we saw in the children's room and Megan just couldn't be prevailed upon to leave the toy room with its dolls of every size (and nationality) and stuffed animals (from the tiny, white kitten to the huge, soft, tawny lion), until we purchased, of all things, three little, plastic fish!

From several of the rooms one can walk through French doors into a secluded garden. How refreshing it is in the heat of the summer to see only shades of green—in the shrubbery, the lawn and the ivy—with simply the accent of an occasional lacy pattenred, cold-white iron bench or chair.

Our trip home (we chose a different route) was enhanced by spectacular views of the river, winding its way through the lush woodlands. Our little girls, having had a big day, slept and mother and I talked quietly of all the lovely things we had seen that day.

My love,
Patty.

Weekly Recipe

This week I have a new custard pie recipe for you. It features strawberry drink which you can purchase from your milkman or at your favorite led with the wi grocery store. You will be thrilled with the wonderful flavor your custard pie will have.

Strawberry cocoanut custard pie

1 unbaked pie shell
4 eggs
2 tbspn. sugar
3 cups strawberry drink
¼ tsp. salt
1 cup shredded cocoanut.

Method: Scald strawberry drink; do not boil. Beat eggs; add sugar, salt, and cocoanut. Pour scalded strawberry drink over egg mixture. Blend well. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake in preheated oven at 450 degrees for 10 minutes; reduce heat to 325 degrees and continue baking for 20 minutes longer. (Scalding strawberry drink reduces baking time.)

Permits Soon For More Gas Heat in Home

The Public Service company of Northern Illinois reported to the Illinois commerce commission that letters would soon be mailed out to all customers who had applied for gas heat between September 1 and December 31, 1951 authorizing them to install their gas furnaces. The company estimated the new authorizations would result in about 15,000 gas furnace installations. Gas heat installations are permitted only in single family dwellings under the restriction order of the commission.

The additional gas heat authorizations at this time are made possible by cancellations from the authorizations made last December. At that time gas heat was authorized for all those who had applied up to September 1, 1951.

THE DECEMBER allocation followed the completion of a new natural gas pipeline from the gulf ocast of Texas to Joliet from which Public Service receives a substantial amount of gas.

Applicants since last January 1, of which there are approximately 40,000 will remain on the waiting list.

In addition, the utility asked commission approval to increase the amount of gas permitted industrial users under the restriction order from 4,000 therms a month to 500 therms a day.

THE INDUSTRIES would be allowed to use the additional gas for processing manufactured products but not for space heating. Such additional industrial gas would be limited in total to an aggregate of 50,000 therms a day, which is less than five per cent of the maximum daily amount required by residential space heating authorized during the past year.

The higher ceiling on industrial gas use would be an aid to defense production and in manufacture of essential civilian goods, the company said. At present, 65 industries have asked Public Service for small additional amounts of gas for processing purposes which can be served under the company's proposal.

The company's proposal is under consideration by the commission.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Communications are the marvel of our modern age, but I am afraid they are not all for the best. In the old days, when women had to dress up, hook up old Dobbin, and drive several miles to visit a fellow gossiper, scandles were often forgotten before they could be discussed. Today, a woman has only to lift the receiver to talk about neighbors for hours on end.

We read about and listen to world events constantly. We have worried about a third World War for years. These worries can be directly laid to a communication system enabling newspapers and radios to broadcast news as it is happening, and tell us about the terrible dangers we are on the brink of, but which never materialize. Thus we have the world's worries on our minds all the time.

Some people jump out of their chair each time the phone rings, race to answer it, one hand on their heart, and at the end of the conversation are exhausted. High blood pressure, heart and nervous disorders are aggravated by jingling telephone bells.

The latest styles are shown on television while envious females watch, green eyed with jealousy. Husbands are tormented and worried by these female television gazers until they give up and buy dresses that enable their wives to show as much bosom as Dagmar. This could never happen in log cabin or pony express days.

Traveling men and men attending conventions are constantly harrassed by suspicious wives. It is easy to find out today whether men out of town on business are dutifully in their rooms by 9:00 p. m. by means of the phone, and if a female voice answers, the result is often awful. Improved methods of communication have thus caused an increased divorce rate, and deprived innocent little children of their loving fathers.

Soap box operas advertising laxatives and tonics for falling hair have increased baldness and habifual constipation, thus contributing to a decline in our national health.

I could go on relating the evil results of improved communications for pages, but what is the use We have adapted ourselves to an evil condition, and there is no way out.

Brides-to-be

Marriage licenses were issued last week by Cook County Clerk, Richard J. Daley, to the following:

Maurice Garber, and Lois Busse, both of Mt. Prospect.

Richard Durland, Mt. Prospect, and Joan Forten, Arlington Hts.

Claude Britt, and Evelyn Britt, both of Arlington Heights.

Jesse Church and Betty Nonnemacher, both of Palatine.

Clarence Bebber, Jr., Arlington Heights, and Celeste Goldsmith, Chicago.

GI Scholarships

Illinois Institute of Technology announced today that it will grant 100 scholarships, valued at one-half tuition, to veterans entering the institute in 1952-53 under the new "Korean G. I Bill."

The new Illinois Tech scholarships are valued at $162.50 per semester or $325 per year.

Guy Anderson Working In Summer Stock At Surry Play House

Guy Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson of 225 N. Plum Grove ave., Palatine, is having an interesting summer at Surry, Me., where he is property manager this season at the Surry Play House.

Guy has also been given the opportunity of appearing in several plays both at Surry and at their sister play house in Bar Harbor. This week he is appearing in "Ramshackle Inn," in which Zasu Pitts is starring.

During the school year Guy is a speech major at Illinois State Normal university. While in Palatine he also appeared in several plays given by Palatine Players.

At Culver

Midshipman Dale W. Johnson from Mt. Prospect is playing in the famous Culver, Indiana, military academy 80-piece naval school band which presents a full concert every Sunday night in the Culver outdoor theater, plays for all parades and military formations, and provides musical entertainment for several feature events during the eight-week session.

Other boys from Mt. Prospect enrolled at Culver this summer include Don Gage in the naval school and Richard Batts in the woodcraft camp for boys 9-14 years old.

Johnson is the son of Charles L. Johnson, 317 S. Albert st., Mt. Prospect.

At Illinois in Chicago

Harold L. Jensen, formerly of 5 S. Albert st., Mt. Prospect, has been elected president of the sophomore class at the University of Illinois college of medicine.

Jansen will hold office during the 1952-53 school year.

Cook County Leads Gambling Stamp Sales

Figures released this week by Ernest Sauber, director of Internal Revenue for the 26-county Northern Illinois district, show that in the year ending June 30, 1952, a total of 233 federal gambling tax stamps were sold to Chicagoans. As of July 1, a new one was needed.

The stamps sell at $50. a copy. The government also takes a 10 per cent cut of all income from gambling.

Chicago's 233 stamp purchasers represent more than half of the total of 440 sold in Cook county. In the entire district, 1,309 stamps were sold. Cook county was the leading county. Six were sold in DuPage county. Cook county also led in slot machines, to operate which cost $250 a year per machine with 198, making 638 gamblers in the county. DuPage county sold 11.

Following are the gambling stamps issued in this area:

Des Plaines: P. M. Berry, Berry's Bait Ranch, Route 1 Box 47, Rand road, Des Plaines; Walter Berhm, Wally's Grill, 1605 Des Plaines ave., Des Plaines.

Glenview: Conrad Zarth, River Inn, 1519 Wagner road; Thomas Nischan, Huge's Hamburgers, 1834 Waukegan road.

Niles: Edward Buller, Eddie's, 7480 Milwaukee.

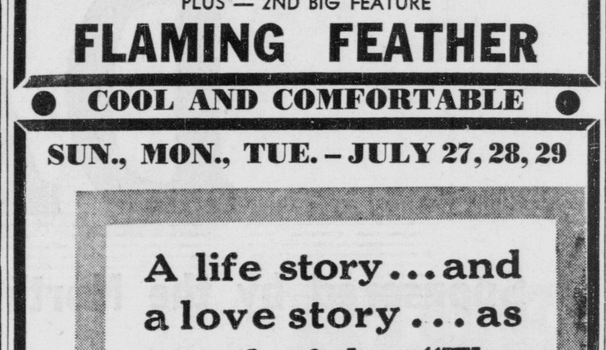

Palatine: Zelma Logan, proprietor, Inverness Golf club, Palatine.

Skokie: Ernest Schoenfeld, 8207 North Kilpatrick.

Working a problem in navigation in the chart house of an amphibious force ship are two midshipmen from Northwestern university. On the left is K. J. Sliwa of Chicago, while on the right is K. A. Rash, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rash, 19 S. William st., Mount Prospect.

The two are among 800 naval reserve officers training corps midshipmen from 25 colleges and universities at the amphibious base at Little Creek, Virginia.

In Wisconsin

The Chicago area's XIV corps artillery, an organized reserve corps unit, is now undergoing its annual two weeks of summer training at Camp McCoy's 63,000 acre west-central Wisconsin post for the fourth time in recent years.

Presently assigned to the XIVth are an artillery group and two eight inch self-propelled howitzer battalions, with which they are operating on the firing range.

Other than supervising operation of artillery units, the XIV Corps' officers and men are intensively participating in individual training. Listed activities are: artillery service practice; telephone, radio and message center operation; camouflage field fortification, cover and concealment; use of the map and compass; air observation; and the operation of a high echelon fire-direction center. On McCoy's ranges, they are firing the 30 cal. carbine and rocket launcher.

Included among those at the camp is Paul A. Engebretson, Maj., 624 Oriole Lane, Mt. Prospect.

In Texas

Cadet Kenneth R. Paulson, son of R. E. Paulson of 406 N. Maple, Itasca, arrived at Reese air force base, Texas, recently to begin a four-week encampment as part of his AFROTC program.

Cadet Paulson is in the air force reserve officers training corps at the University of Illinois. The course includes one, four-week encampment during which the cadets live on an air force base and study military operations and procedures.

Kenneth is a candidate for a bachelor of science degree from the university next June. He has just completed his third year of AFROTC there.

Home from Korea

Sergeant Jack C. Csepp of Arlington Heights has returned home from overseas duty. He served nine months as an army medical aidman with the 21st infantry regiment in Korea.

The silver star and military merit badge were awarded to Sgt. Csepp last January for his gallantry in action when he risked his life and was wounded while treating three other wounded soldiers. He was then shipped to Japan where he was stationed four months before his rotation.

Sergeant Csepp arrived home June 26 for his 30 day furlough. He will return to Fort Sheridan July 26 to await his further orders.

Sgt. Csepp is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Csepp of Arlington Heights.

With Uncle Sam

In Korea

Pvt. Ronald C. Matysak, whose wife, Edna, lives on Hintz rd., Mount Prospect, is serving with the 25th infantry division in eastern Korea.

Private Matysak entered the army in October, 1951, and is serving with headquarters, 3rd battalion of the 35th infantry regiment. He was employed by Carey Brick, Chicago, in civilian life.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Matysak, live on Sanders rd., Northbrook.

In Korea

Marine Sgt. Robert Camm, of Wheeling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Camm, was injured by a land mine which exploded about six feet from where he was standing, and he is now in a hospital ship at Inchon harbor. The injuries were received not far from that location. Luckily, he was not seriously injured and he expects to be leaving for home on July 31.

In Texas

Naval Cadet Dean S. Woodman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley J. Woodman of 401 Manawa Trail, Mt. Prospect, reported recently for fighter pilot training at U. S. naval auxiliary air station, Kingsville, Texas.

Instruction in basic and preflight training were completed at the naval air station, Pensacola, Fla.

Woodman was graduated from Amherst college in Amherst, Mass., before entering the navy in 1951. He was assigned to the naval aviation cadet program and was sent to Pensacola.

Woodman will receive training in the navy's fastest propeller-driven fighter plane, the F8F (Bearcat), while at Kingsville. He will then return to Pensacola for carrier qualification landings.

In Korea

Now stationed in Korea is Pvt. Edward Bitter of Palatine. He arrived there July 4 and writes he is two miles behind the front lines with the artillery. His present address is Pvt. Edward Bitter, U. S. 55236406, Btry. A, 171st FA Bn. APO 86, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Lessons In .... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words often misused

It is better to use "underhand," instead of "underhanded," often heard. "He is an underhand baseball pitcher," or, "He is accused of underhand dealings with the enemy."

Do not say, "I am not going to buy anything at all." Omit the final 2 words; they are superfluous.

The use of "success" to mean the person or thing that is successful is colloquial; as, "He is a success," "Her novel is a success." In good English, this colloquial use should be avoided.

Do not say, "Page twenty is all the farther I have read." Say, "is as far as I have read."

Do not say, "It is not as large as you claimed." Say, "It is not so large as you claimed." So should follow a negative.

Do not say, "The house was surrounded on all sides by water." Inasmuch as "surround" means to inclose on all sides, you should eliminate "on all sides" from the sentence.

Words often mispronounced

Oceanic. Pronounce second syllable as she, not as see, and place principal accent on third syllable.

Gruyere (a popular cheese). Preferred pronunciation is gru-yar, u as in rude, a as in care, accent second syllable.

Avid. Pronounce the a as in at, not as in ate.

Omar Khayyam (famed Persian poet). Pronounce o-mar ki-yam, o as in oat, first a as in mar, i as in kite, final a as in yam, accent first syllable of first name and second syllable of last name.

Paprika. Preferred pronunciation is pa-pre-ka, first a as in pat, e as in preach, final a unstressed, accent on second syllable.

Patio. Pronounce the a as in ah, and accent first syllable.

Words often misspelled

Nauseate; observe the five vowels. Portiere; observe the iere, which is pronounced yar, a as in care. Accede (to yield); exceed (to surpass). Palate (the roof of the mouth); palette (artist's mixing board). Inoculate; only one n and one c. Peremptory (decisive or final;) preemptory (of or pertaining to the act of establishing a prior right to purchase or of appropriating beforehand).

Word study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Immanence; inherence; an indwelling. (Accent first syllable). "She was conscious of the immanence of God."

Soporific; causing sleep. (Pronounce both o's as in no, both i's as in it, accent third syllable). "The sedative and soporific effects on the patient."

Voracious; greedy in eating; ravenous; gluttonous. "Anne has a voracious appetite."

Accusatory; pertaining to an accusation. "All the statements concerning the person were accusatory."

Immaterial; of no substantial consequence; unimportant. "It is immaterial to me whether he goes or remains."

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Q—What is the greenish film that forms on copper pipes and how can it be removed?

A—The green deposit is caused by oxidation, similar to rusting of iron. It can be removed by washing with ammonia.

Q—How can bulged linoleum be flattened?

A—If the bulge is along a seam, lift the edge and push linoleum paste under the loosened section. If the bulge is in the middle of a sheet, cut through the center of the bulge with a sharp razor blade and squirt paste underneath with an ear syringe. If the cut is made along a line in the pattern, it will not show. Weight down repaired areas until the paste dries.

Q—If the roof of a house has ugly lines, what can be done to make it less noticeable?

A—A situation like that calls for clever use of color. The solution is to make the roof and the sidewalls the same color, or, at least, to have a roofing color and a sidewall color that blend closely with each other. Asphalt shingles are ideal for that purpose. They are made in both solid and blended colors, ranging from subtle pastels to black.

Q—If oil has been spilled on a softwood floor, staining the boards, what can be done?

A—Cover the stain with dry portland cement or plaster of Paris as soon as possible after the oil has been spilled. This will absorb the oil. If this doesn't work, try gasoline or benzine, taking precautions against fire.

Q—Is it possible to get rid of clothes moths by finding their breeding place and destroying it?

A—Yes. If there are months in a house, there usually is a central place from which they come. This might be an old carpet or a bundle of old clothes hidden away on a closet shelf or in the attic. If moths are frequently seen, a search should be made for this "nest."

NEWS FOR THE FARMER

Carl F. Mees — Adviser and Editor

FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1952

Freak Accidents Kill Many Hours On Local Farms

An Illinois farmer was using some hot tar one day last summer to repair his barn roof. Suddenly the tar caught fire. The farmer ran to the barrel and tried to smother the flames, but he slipped and fell into the hot liquid. Before he could struggle out of the barrel, he was severely burned. A short while later he died from the burns.

This is the type of freak accident that injures many Illinois farm folks every year, according to an article in the July issue of the Illinois Agricultural Association Record. For example:

ANOTHER FARMER using dynamite to do some blasting failed to get a safe distance away before the dynamite exploded. He was injured so severely that he soon died.

A young farmer was using a power mower to cut weeds in his barnyard. A blade of the mower hit a piece of wire, which flew up and hit him in the eye. The wire cut both the eyelid and eyeball and doctors were lucky to save the sight in the injured eye, according to the IAA magazine. The IAA is the statewide farm bureau organization with more than 190,000 farm families as members.

NOR ARE farm women and children safe, either. One Illinois farmer's wife lost the end of one of her fingers last summer while starting a power mower at her home. Her finger was caught in the starting mechanism and was cut off back of the first joint. She had to go to the hospital to have the injury treated.

Getting a soft drink on a hot summer day caused another farm woman an accident. She went to her refrigerator to get a bottle of the drink and the bottle broke as she opened the refrigerator door. The broken bottle fell and made a deep cut in her leg.

A YOUNG BOY climbed a tree near his farm home to watch for the postman, not knowing there was a power line in the tree. He touched the line and was knocked unconscious. The mailman found him dangling by one foot from a crotch in the tree. The boy wound up with burns all over his body — and a stay in the hospital.

A 9-year-old girl was feeding leaves to two horses across a wire fence. One of the horses lunged at her, bruising her on the chest with his teeth and knocking her over the barbed wire, which scratched her stomach and legs severely.

File Income Tax Lien Against Villa Venice

An income tax lien for $143,264 was filed Monday in the county recorder's office against Bouche's Villa Venice, Milwaukee ave. in Northbrook. It includes $77,622 in principal and the rest in interest and penalties, and covers the years 1946 to 1950, inclusive.

Many Features in New Farmhouse Plan

MIDWEST FLEXI-PLAN 71203, VARIATION A

Here's a new farmhouse plan with many of the features you have been asking for.

Farm adviser Carl F. Mees says one of the main features is the U-shaped kitchen with eating space. This style kitchen provides the easiest, most efficient work space for the homemaker combined with plenty of room to set a good table in the same room.

This house plan also features a front entrance which faces the side drive. This arrangement does away with the old annoyance of having guests enter the house through the kitchen.

Other things you have been asking for in your new farmhouses which this house plan has include a ground floor work area for clean-up facilities for the men of the family and a rear grade entrance to the basement. Either the basement or the work room can handle the laundry equipment. This plan also features a fireplace in the living room.

You can get detail drawings for this house at your county farm or home adviser's office, or you can order them direct from the College of Agriculture at Urbana at a cost of $2.10. The drawings show you how you can expand the plan to include any number of bedrooms on either one or two floors.

Variation A, shown here, is just one of the many plans you can choose from Midwest Flexi-Plan 71203. You can adapt this new type of educational house plan to produce hundreds of different farmhouses.

Rock Phosphate Still Worth $16 Acre Years Later

Rock phosphate applied in 1931 is still producing larger crops worth an extra $16 an acre each year at today's prices at the Joliet soil experiment field.

L. B. Miller, University of Illinois soils man, says this is just another typical case of the long-lasting effects of rock phosphate. The same general story applies at the Elizabethtown field in Hardin county and on other soils low in phosphorus.

At today's prices it costs about $2 per acre for necessary phosphorus. The results at Joliet have been eight times the original cost.

Just over four tons of rock phosphate have been applied at Joliet since the field was started in 1914. Extra crop yields due to rock phosphate have been valued at nearly $300. That figure is based on yield increases for each crop, valued at going farm prices each year.

DURING THE past four years, extra per acre yields due to rock phosphate have averaged 21 bushels for corn, 4 bushels for soybeans, 10 bushels for oats and 10 bushels for wheat—even though no rock phosphate has been put on for 21 years.

Miller emphasizes the fact that yield increases are just as good now as in the past. They've held up well over the years.

The rotation at Joliet is corn, soybeans, corn, oats, wheat, legumes. This red clover-alfalfa mixture is plowed down to loosen the soil and add nitrogen. No animal manure is added to this grain system rotation. However, where this has been done in a livestock system of farming, crop increases have been about one-third smaller. The soil type at Joliet is Elliott silt loam, and all land has been limed.

Summer Farrowed Pigs Make Cheap Gains

Raising a third farrowing of summer pigs is becoming more popular among Illinois swine growers, even though these hogs usually bring a lower price when they go to market.

G. R. Carlisle, livestock specialist at the Illinois college of agriculture, explains that farmers who follow this practice count on lower production costs to offset the lower prices.

Summer pigs are the right size to clean up cornfields and follow cattle in the fall, and will put on cheap gains with limited summer concentrates and plenty of good pasture.

Carlisle says successful growers using this plan full-feed a balance ration until pigs reach 60-75 pound weights. After the pigs reach 75 pounds they get about a half feed of grain, but no protein supplement. Minerals are fed free choice.

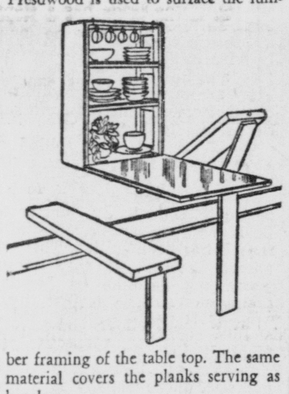

Pigs getting limited grain need 50 per cent more pasture than those getting a full feed of grain. Ladino clover has given excellent results in this summer pasture program.

Novel Table for Cottage Folds Against Wall

A COMPACT, out-of-the-way table and benches suitable for a camp cottage will be a pleasure to build and a delight to the family because of its novelty.

The table top, when folded up, serves as a door for the wall cabinet. Because it will wear long and is easy to keep clean, Masonite 1/4" Tempered Presdwood is used to surface the lumber framing of the table top. The same material covers the planks serving as benches.

The cupboard is built of 1-inch lumber framing, covered with Tempered Presdwood. Shelves are similarly constructed.

Note the hinges which permit the table and benches to be pushed out of the way, against the wall, to which they are fastened with hooks.

Panels of Presdwood can be used effectively in other ways at the summer cottage—to cover unsightly interior walls, for converting a large room into smaller ones, corner closets, floors, fish cleaning and bait cutting boards, sunshades at the beach, or resurfacing old picnic tables.

Leukosis Causes Severe Poultry Losses Here

Range paralysis and big liver disease, two forms of leukosis, are taking a big toll in the poultry industry, points out Dr. L. E. Hansom, University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine.

Cancer-like cells that destroy the large nerves of the legs and wings cause range paralysis, Dr. Hanson says. Big liver disease results when tumorous growths greatly enlarge the liver and other organs.

These diseases may strike from 3 to 4 per cent to nearly all of the birds in a flock. Range paralysis strikes chiefly pullets on range, while big liver disease attacks laying flocks.

OTHER FORMS of leukosis cause blindness, deform bones, or invade the blood. Sometimes several forms of the disease can be found in the same poultry flock.

Many veterinarians believe that some forms of leukosis, including range paralysis and big liver disease, are caused by virus-like agents. So far there is no effective cure for leukosis.

Dr. Hanson says young birds should be kept separate from old stock, as chickens appear to be most susceptible during their first 30 days of life. Gradually chickens increase their resistance to the disease. Symptoms of leukosis may appear six weeks to a year after the birds are infected.

Good sanitation also helps to prevent range paralysis and other forms of leukosis. This includes thoroughly cleaning brooder and laying houses and equipment, and rotating ranges regularly.

More surveys needed To reach goal

The state-federal crop reporting service, Springfield, is asking 100 more farmers in Cook county to fill out their hay and pasture questionnaires in order to realize a 40 per cent return.

The original survey, sent out early in May, was followed by a second request about June 15. Every eighth farmer in each county received the form. A third and final request was mailed on July 15 to those farmers not yet replying.

Farm adviser Carl F. Mees says a 40 per cent return will give a good picture of acreage and use of legume-grass crops in the county. This information will be helpful in planning future emphasis on legume-grass crops in the county extension program.

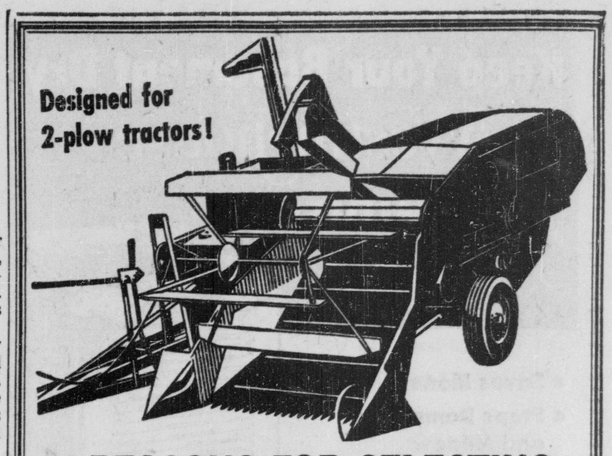

The hay and pasture survey is being conducted jointly by the crop reporting service and the University of Illinois college of agriculture. So far about 7,000 questionnaires have been returned by farmers throughout the state.

Gets Feed Certificate

Warnimont Farm Supply company, Roselle, has been issued a certificate of mixing accuracy by the Ralston Purina company, following an analysis of samples taken from custom-mixed feeds prepared specially for customers of the mill.

The proper mixing of ingredients, using grain grown locally by farmers in this area, has long been recognized as an important factor in the efficient and economical feeding of livestock and poultry.

The samples which passed the most recent laboratory tests, and qualified the mill for the Certificate, did not vary more than one-half of one per cent in protein content.

Asphalt Coating Is New Answer To Starting Grass Seedings

The use of a new asphalt spray coating seems to be "just what the doctor ordered" to keep new seedings in grass waterways or sloping home lawns healthy.

H. M. Smith, soils man at the University of Illinois, has tested the spray over a three-year period and believes it's an excellent answer to the old problem of holding soil, seed and fertilizer in place until the seeding is well established.

A special asphalt material is sprayed on the soil immediately after seeding, with the seedbed prepared in the usual way. The asphalt make a dry covering less than 1/16 inch thick which does not stick to your feet. Legume-grass mixtures grow right through this covering. Bluegrass, alta fescue, ryegrass, redtop, red clover, Korean lespedeza, Ladino clover and small grains have all come through the asphalt in fine shape.

Recommended spraying rates are from two to three-tenths gallon per square yard, and slightly more on steep slopes.

THE ASPHALT stops the soil from washing while the seedlings develop, but break down within a year. No bad effects on the soil have been found.

In the tests, Smith observed that seedings under asphalt sprays always come up a week or two earlier than on untreated check plots, a point to remember for fall seedings. The black asphalt seems to absorb more heat and seal in some of the moisture, producing earlier germination. Yet enough small cracks develop in the coating to let moisture in. It's best to sprinkle the area before seeding and coating in dry weather.

Smith warns that ordinary road construction asphalts should not be used for this purpose. "Terolas," a Shell oil company material, and "asphalt mulch" from Lion oil company have both given good results in the tests.

AT APRIL prices, and at recommended rates of application, Smith figures the cost would be 5 to 8 cents a square yard, and in some cases cheaper than a straw mulch. The asphalt won't blow away, and there's no danger of fire or weeds. It won't smother a seeding, yet is heavy enough to prevent erosion.

A 3-gallon orchard type sprayer or ordinary spray rig, both with enlarged nozzle openings, can be used to apply the "Terolas" emulsion. The cut-back "asphalt mulch" must be heated to 170 degrees, so highway departments and custom spray operators should have equipment for applying this type. Both asphalts should be sprayed, not sprinkled on the soil.

575,000 4-H'ers Get Training to Cut Farm Accident Toll

Farm safety surveys made by 4-H'ers show that matches within reach of small children and stairways littered with toys, jars and other articles were much in evidence as fire and accident hazards in rural homes.

Chicago—(Special)—More than 575,000 4-H Club boys and girls throughout the nation are receiving training in farm accident and fire prevention this year. The outstanding feature of this training in the National 4-H Farm and Home Safety program is to check and remove from farms and homes any conditions likely to cause fire, accidents or injuries. These 4-H surveys are acclaimed a valuable contribution to the nation-wide campaign to reduce the annual toll of 15,000 farm people dying and 1,300,000 being injured as a result of rural accidents each year.

Here is a report, made by a 4-H girl on behalf of her local club, after making a safety survey of every home in the community:

"In all homes having stairways that we visited, the stairs were full of toys, jars, tools and other articles," she stated. "In many homes people used kerosene to build fires. They also had oily cloths and papers stored close to the stove and flue. Matches and unlabeled bottles of poisonous liquids were within reach of small children.

"On several farms visited, boards with rusty nails pointing upward were much in evidence. In our local schoolhouse, the ceiling plaster in the classroom was loose. If it fell it would cause severe injuries to the pupils.

"After we had made our survey, we called a community meeting. Attention was called to the hazards we had found. Immediately following the meeting everyone present began work necessary to make our community a safe one. Every hazard we had found was corrected."

Medals of honor are presented to five county winners having the best 4-H records in safety work, and a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago is awarded to the State champion. Eight of the latter will be selected as national winners, who will each receive a $300 college scholarship. Awards are provided by General Motors for the eighth consecutive year. The program is conducted under the direction of the Co-operative Extension Service.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it proper for a man, who meets a woman on the street, and who removes his hat in greeting her, to keep his hat in his hand during any conversation he might have with the woman?

A. This is not necessary, and especially if the weather is inclement, it would be foolish for him to stand uncovered.

Q. Should one always use the napkin before drinking from a glass of water at the dinner table?

A. Yes; this prevents any chance of leaving an unsightly smudge of food on the rim of the glass.

Q. Is it proper for a woman to apply any of her makeup in public?

A. Sometimes at the end of a meal in a public eating place this is necessary, and it is quite all right for a woman to make light use of her powder puff and lipstick.

Q. If the bride has a stepfather, should his name be included in her wedding invitations, or just her mother's?

A. The invitations should include his name, as, "Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Gray request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Susan Ellen Brown, etc."

Q. Is it permissible to cut a croquette with the knife?

A. No. The fork is used to break it. Then, with the tines up, use the fork to convey a piece to the mouth.

Q. Is it correct to put candles on the luncheon table?

A. No; these are used only on the dinner table.

Q. When a man and woman are leaving a public dining place, who goes first?

A. The woman goes first, and her escort should follow close behind, to open doors and be of assistance otherwise. Ordinarily, women do not open doors or pick up objects they may have dropped.

Q. Does a divorced woman who has remarried continue to use her first husband's name along with her new one?

A. No; she drops it entirely.

Q. I should like very much to have my father serve as my best man at my wedding. Would this be all right?

A. This is quite all right and, in fact, it is done often.

Q. Is it proper for a man's mother to give a bridal shower for her prospective daughter-in-law?

A. It is never good form for a mother, or a close relative, to give the shower — this is in the nature of asking for "donations." The shower should be given, and all expenses paid, by a friend, or a group of friends, of the person for whom the shower is given.

4-Hers Have Safety, Health Recreation Setup

Three national 4-H programs in which club boys and girls help to make rural America safer, healthier and happier are being continued this year in Illinois, the State 4-H club office announces.

They are the farm and home safety, health improvement and recreation-rural arts programs.

1951 records show that more than 580,000 members all over the country took part in the farm and home safety program checking and correcting accident and fire hazards on home grounds and farmsteads. Nearly 750,000 4-H'ers improved their own health and cooperated in improving health conditions in their homes and communities, and half million 4-H boys and girls assisted in developing recreation activities, as well as took part in music and art appreciation.

INCENTIVES FOR outstanding county records of achievement in these programs are merit medals for winners in safety, provided by General Motors, and certificates of honor for those in both health and recreational-rural arts, in which Kellogg company, and U. S. Rubber, respectively, are awards donors.

The respective donors also provide trips to the national 4-H club congress in Chicago next November for state winners in safety and health. In the latter, cash awards of $20 to each are presented to 10 clubs carrying the best health programs in the state. In recreational-rural arts, a $25 cash award for the purchase of equipment will be given to each county naming a blue award group of 4-H Clubs.

National awards are college scholarships of $300 each for 8 top ranking winners in safety; $100 U. S. savings bond and blue ribbon in health, and Chicago club congress trip for each of 12 champions in recreation and rural arts.

Glenview Annexes Industrial Property

Culminating two months of discussion, the Glenview village board annexed to the village a 21 acre tract of land. The piece, owned by the Hanson Scale company, is located on Shermer rd., south of the present boundary and adjacent to the village at Dehne rd. It is zoned for light industry. The Hanson company will build a plant on about four acres of the tract and will sell the remainder to other industries according to present plans.

More Corporations

New incorporations in Illinois are 195 greater for the first six months of this year over 1951, secretary of state Edward J. Barrett reported. The totals are: 1952—3,313; 1951—3,118.

Selective Service Ups Call for September

Local boards of the Illinois selective service system must furnish 2,032 men for induction into the army in September, Colonel Paul G. Armstrong, state director, announced. This represents approximately 6.8 per cent of the national quota of 30,000.

Colonel Armstrong said the call will be filled by taking all available registrants aged 21 and over, and making up any remaining balance with 20-year-olds. No one under 20 will be inducted in September, he said. However, much heavier calls are expected beginning in October according to recent defense deparment announcements, and by 1953 it may become necessary to start inducting 19-year-olds.

Stepped-up inductions are required to provide replacements for reservists called since the outbreak of the Korean war who are now being discharged under the law, as well as for men inducted through selective service whose two-year periods of active duty are being completed. More and more of these are becoming eligible for release each month, Colonl Armstrong explained, and it will be the task of the selective service local boards to furnish the replacements needed to keep the army up to the strength set by congress.
